

Seek U.N. Action in Continuing Crisis Over Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 14,800 air reservists prepared to muster for indefinite active duty as the United States pushed along diplomatic paths to a possible bloodless settlement of the Pueblo crisis.

President Johnson's approach obviously was to couple an air of determination with a readiness to use diplomacy in gaining release from Communist North Korea of the captured U.S. Navy intelligence ship and the 83 Americans aboard.

The diplomatic paths included an urgent session of the 15-nation U.N. Security Council to consider what U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg called a "grave threat to peace."

The council president for January, Ambassador Agha Shahi of Pakistan, set the meeting for 3:30 p. m. He had conferred until 3:30 a. m. with representatives of the 14 other council members to determine if they would agree to a meeting.

The North Koreans also talked tough. The official newspaper of the North Korean Communist Party said Friday the Pueblo's crewmen "must be punished by law."

It was not clear whether this meant the North Koreans planned to try the U.S. Navy men on some kind of charges, or would demand their punishment as the price of their being freed.

Any move to try the Americans would almost certainly inflame members of Congress, some of whom already are demanding direct military action to reclaim the ship and its men.

In Congress, Rep. Paul Findley, R-Ill., offered a resolution that would place Congress on record as backing Johnson in any try at recovering the Pueblo and its company.

North Korea called itself fully prepared to meet any attack by the United States, and threatened it would "deal a hundred-fold, thousand-fold retaliation."

What will happen if diplomatic means should fail remained very much in doubt.

The call-up of 14,787 Air National Guardsmen, Air Force Reservists and Naval Air Reservists will serve to give the United States a little more airpower at a time when pilot and plane resources are spread thin because of the Vietnam war.

Army and Marine sources said they have not been given any sign that any of their reserve ground units would be called up.

The Marines have a 49,000-man division-air wing team they would like to bring on active duty. The Army has built a 150,000-man "Select Reserve Force" of Guard and Reserve outfits honed with extra training.

The Naval Reserve has some 38 destroyers that could be used profitably by the regular Navy, which has had to commit a sizable part of its destroyer fleet in Asian waters. In 1962, Reserve destroyers helped escort U.S. forces into Thailand at a time of serious Communist menace from neighboring Laos.

In other developments:

—Secretary of State Dean Rusk, speaking to 1,000 persons at a Brooklyn, N.Y., political dinner, said "there can be no satisfactory result short of prompt, immediate release of that ship."

—Retired Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin said in Hanover, N.H., that the capture of the Pueblo is a "very black mark on our military competence"

—Navy officers smarted at what they said is an attempt by civilian Pentagon officials to point the finger at military commanders for not dispatching help to the Pueblo.

—In Honolulu, sources said Adm. U. S. Grant Sharp, U.S. commander in the Pacific, didn't learn of the plight of the Pueblo until he landed on the carrier Kitty Hawk off Vietnam during an inspection visit to the war zone.

By that time, the sources said, the North Koreans apparently were aboard the spy ship.

—Pentagon officials, in effect, accused North Korea of falsifying radar tracking data in claiming the Pueblo was inside its territorial waters.

—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who commanded allied forces during the Korean War, said: "The prospect of the reopening of the Korean conflict is low on my list of worries tonight."

Taylor, now a special adviser to the President on Vietnam, characterized the ship's seizure as a "diversionary move" aimed at discouraging South Korea from sending more troops to aid South Vietnam. He spoke in Fort Myers, Fla.

STUDYING LATEST PUEBLO NEWS — Residents of Boys Town, Neb., pore over news reports of the capture of Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher, a 1947 graduate, captured in the seizure of the U.S. intelligence vessel Pueblo by North Koreans. U.S. Feels Sure Pueblo's Coding Device Destroyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The intelligence ship Pueblo's crew blew up the vessel's secret coding machine and the North Koreans apparently got "nothing that really compromises us," say Navy sources.

These sources said there was evidence of this in the message from the Pueblo's skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher.

Except for the coding machine, the Navy sources said Thursday the rest of the Pueblo's gear was "routine stuff," including tape recorders to store such intercepted data as radio messages.

Ever since the Pueblo was captured by four North Korean patrol boats near midnight Monday, there has been public concern the Communists might have bagged important equipment which could have told the enemy much about this country's intelligence gathering know-how.

The Pentagon has said messages from Bucher, before his radio went dead, indicated he and his men had started to destroy secret gear to keep it out of North Korean hands. But the Defense Department has not said how successful Bucher was.

New reports circulated to the effect that four crewmen were wounded in the explosions that were set off to blow up the Pueblo's sensitive equipment.

But Navy sources restated it is still uncertain how the four men were hurt. The messages did not say, they insisted.

The sources said there is some evidence that the North Koreans fired at the Pueblo with their 40-millimeter guns before boarding.

"The wounds could have happened either way—from gunfire or their own charges blowing up the equipment," one source said.

The Navy sources disclosed at the same time that the Pueblo's skipper was under standing orders to avoid a fight and to keep his ship's machine guns sheathed under canvas.

Resignation By Gardner Is Analyzed

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Gardner's sudden resignation as secretary of health, education and welfare was prompted in part by his belief Congress and most Americans won't face up to severe domestic problems, sources report.

Gardner's resignation Thursday, to take effect March 1, caught even his closest associates by surprise. President Johnson accepted it "with deep regret."

An official close to the HEW chief, asked to explain the resignation, handed a newsman a copy of a Gardner speech last month and pointed to these paragraphs:

"I believe we are now in a situation in which the gravest consequences for this nation will ensue if we fail to act decisively on the problems of the cities, poverty and discrimination."

"It does not seem to me that either Congress or the public is fully aware of the alarming character of our domestic crisis. We are in deep trouble as a people. And history is not going to deal kindly with a rich nation that will not tax itself to cure its own miseries."

British Train Robber Nabbed In Canada

MONTREAL (AP) — The capture in Canada of Charles Wilson, one of Britain's great train robbers and master jail-breaker, climaxes a 3½-year search by a Scotland Yard sleuth who stayed on beyond retirement to get his men. He still has two to go.

Wilson, 37, escaped from a maximum security prison in Birmingham in 1964 after serving only four months of a 30-year sentence for his part in the $5.5 million raid on a British mail train in 1963.

Wilson's whereabouts became the prime interest of Detective Chief Supt. Thomas Butler. Only $792,000 of the haul had been recovered, and Wilson was thought to know where the remainder was hidden.

For more than three years Butler, head of Scotland Yard's flying squad, sifted reports that Wilson had been spotted in Tangier, Mexico, Spain, Holland and London.

He always drew a blank. Wilson, known as the silent one who never gave anything away, seemed to have vanished.

Butler was due for retirement last year at 55 after 33 years in the police. But Police Commissioner Sir Joseph Simpson gave him an extension to track down Wilson and two other members of the gang, Ronald Biggs and Bruce Reynolds.

Salvage Workers Continue Operations in Greenland

TULE AIR BASE, Greenland (AP) — The U.S. Air Force found hydrogen bomb fragments Thursday around the spot where a B52 bomber crashed and burned on thick ice near this Arctic Circle base.

But the Air Force doesn't know whether the rest of the four bombs aboard the big Strategic Air Command jet are buried in the snow and ice or at the bottom of North Star Bay under about 880 feet of water, Maj. Gen. Richard O. Unziker told a news conference.

All the debris is being left "right where it is," said Unziker, "because right now I have control of the contamination and I don't want to let it get away from me."

He added that it had not been decided whether to search deeper for the rest of the bombs.

The plane crashed Sunday on a nine-foot thick blanket of ice covering North Star Bay near Thule base. The flame-scorched area and fragments of the plane indicate that the B52 may have exploded on impact.

One crewman perished in the crash. Six others parachuted to safety. One of them, Capt. Frank P. Hopkins, has been returned to Andrews Air Force Base, Md., suffering a broken arm and a minor frost bite.

"I have positive evidence the weapons are around the scar" where the plane crashed, Unziker said.

But while "every piece of debris we found was contaminating," by the device's radioactive contents, Unziker said, "based on the information we now have, this does not present a dangerous situation to anyone."

Unziker said he does not know what percentage of the thermonuclear devices aboard the plane has been found.

Unziker said the bombs apparently were on board the huge aircraft not thrown from it when it plunged into the ice. He displayed a photograph of what he called the plane's impact area and a long, black scar on the ice where the plane slid for several hundred yards, spewing fuel and burning.

Local Airman 'Ready To Go'

Sgt. William Moody, 1265 N. Court St., stated "I'm ready to go anytime and I think any member of this outfit feels the same way."

Sgt. Moody is one of 20 to 30 Pickaway County men assigned to the 121st Tactical Fighter Group of the Ohio Air National Guard that will be effected by President Johnson's Thursday call up of 14,600 Air Force and Navy air reservists, according to Brig. General Paul E. Hoover, wing commander of the 121st TFG at Lockbourne.

Sgt. Moody, 30, is one of about 900 Ohio "weekend airmen" alerted for active duty due to the seizure of the USS Pueblo by North Korea.

Moody and other reservists from throughout the state have been streaming into Lockbourne Air Force Base since Thursday's call-up. They will be on active duty at one minute past midnight Friday.

He is married to the former Mary Hoag and is the father of seven children. But he feels there is no reason for him not to serve. "It is my duty to go," he stated.

This is the third time in 17 years that the 121st has been activated because of world crisis.

Pacifist Forms Danish Cabinet

COPENHAGEN (AP) — King Frederik IX named a pacifist critical of Denmark's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today to try to form a new government after the Socialists' election defeat.

The king chose Hilmar Baunsgaard, 47, whose Radical Liberal party made the biggest gains in Tuesday's national elections in which voters registered disapproval of Denmark's inflation and the government's efforts to curb it.

Baunsgaard pledged to form a government on the broadest possible basis, but all signs pointed to a coalition of center and rightist parties as Denmark's first non-Socialist government in 15 years.

Plan Brings Dissension In GOP Ranks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's General Assembly gave grudging approval early today to a congressional redistricting plan and readied it for shipment to a federal court to meet a 4 p. m. deadline.

But the marathon session that completed enactment resulted in a rebuff for the GOP administration and angry feelings among majority Republicans that it may take some time to smooth.

The House passed the measure at 2:25 a. m., a half hour after Senate action and nearly 16 hours after the grueling session that started before noon Thursday.

Administration spokesman said a state plane would be used to fly the bill to the U.S. District Court in Cleveland which ordered the legislature to remap the state into districts virtually equal in population. Present districts varying as much as 33 per cent from the smallest to the largest were invalidated by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The key issue between GOP Gov. James A. Rhodes and some Republicans was an assertion by Rhodes that the federal court would not approve any variation in excess of 2 per cent. At the start of the recess session two weeks ago, he submitted a plan that provided for a variation of less than 1 per cent.

But the bill that emerged after heated argument between the Senate, where the governor's strength was the greatest, and the House, provided for a spread in population from the smallest to the largest district of 2.4 per cent.

Rhodes was not available in the early morning house, but John M. McElroy — his top aide — told reporters "he will give it some study." There were unconfirmed reports earlier that Rhodes might veto a measure that exceeded his population recommendation.

A veto automatically would place the entire matter in the hands of the federal court which could, and probably would, redistrict the state itself. McElroy said he understood the three-judge panel in Cleveland would hold a hearing on the bill Saturday.

For the previous week the total was 1,054.

Hamilton Man To Face Trial

CINCINNATI (AP) — A federal grand jury returned a true bill against Roy C. Sloneker of Hamilton Thursday on four counts of embezzling.

Junket by Solons Aids Dollar Drain

WASHINGTON (AP) — A week after President Johnson curtailed foreign travel by government employees, a House subcommittee is touring the Pacific and, a Treasury official says, contributing to the dollar drain.

The subcommittee says its three-week tour doesn't affect the balance of payments.

But William W. Diehl, director of the Treasury's Office of International Economic Activity, said in an interview that despite a Congress-mandated bookkeeping system which provides local currency for congressional tourists, the net effect of the trip is to spend dollars abroad.

In no country the group is visiting does the United States have a foreign currency balance, said Diehl.

"If we don't have a foreign currency balance on hand," said Diehl, "our disbursing officer overseas have to go into the market with dollars and replenish their foreign currencies."

Every dollar thus spent, he said, is a contribution to the balance of payments deficit.

The trip by a House Public Works subcommittee is centered around a six-day conference of the International Road Federation starting Sunday in Sydney, Australia. Members stopped over in Tahiti Thursday.

Frank Turner, director of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, was supposed to go, too. But he canceled out Tuesday after Johnson ordered a cut in government workers' travel abroad.

The President has no control of congressional touring.

Rep. Frank M. Clark, D-Pa., chairman of the subcommittee, said before the group left Washington Wednesday that the conference is valuable as a forum for "new ideas, new ways of building highways, new ideas in transportation."

Pacification Chief Quits In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The head of South Vietnam's pacification program has submitted his resignation from the Army, a spokesman for the Vietnamese joint general staff said today.

Informed sources said the officer, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Duc Thang, is considered by Americans who work with him to be one of the military regime's most aggressive, thoroughgoing officials. He long has been disillusioned over Saigon's inability to meet its commitment, in the countryside, one source said.

A western source said Thang will get a new post dealing with pacification. But there appeared to be no reason for Thang to attempt to resign his job and to quit the Army if there were a simple shifting of titles.

Thang was not available today for comment.

If Thang is headed out, it could have serious repercussions on the lowly evolving pacification program which Thang's personality, drive and ability got off the ground after eight years of failure. U.S. officials say the outcome of the pacification effort ultimately will determine the future of South Vietnam.

Blame U.S. For Laotian Outbreak

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Pathet Lao high command claimed today "new military plots in Laos" by the United States had prompted Communist forces to mount recent attacks on Laotian outposts.

Communist forces two weeks ago drove neutralist Lao government troops out of the strategic Nam Bae Valley base in northern Laos. On Thursday, Lao military sources said North Vietnamese troops captured southern Laotian outpost and forced the garrison to flee into South Vietnam.

There was no word today on the fate of a Laotian government battalion and some 2,000 civilians that fled in the face of the Communist attack on Ban-houaisane.

The outpost is near the Ho Chi Minh trail, the major Communist supply route for men and material headed for South Vietnam.

The Lao commander of Ban-houaisane reported he was trying to reach the U.S. Special Forces camp at Khe Sah in South Vietnam, an area that has been under increasing Communist pressure itself in the last few days.

The function of the outpost was to harass North Vietnamese forces moving down the Ho Chi Minh trail and to provide information on troop and supply movements for U.S. bombing strikes on the trail.

The increased tempo of Communist attacks in Laos has been matched by a surge of activity on the Ho Chi Minh trail. Intelligence sources in Saigon believe the stepped-up Communist activity in Laos indicates a major North Vietnamese offensive in South Vietnam.

Vanik Sets Seat Shift

CLEVELAND (AP) — U.S. Rep. Charles A. Vanik, Cleveland Democrat, issued a statement here today that he would not run for re-election to Congress from the 21st District of Ohio and would announce "in the very near future" what other district seat he would seek.

The 21st District as reapportioned by the legislature is a predominantly Negro East Side area and it is considered likely by political experts that a Negro congressman will be elected there.

There has been speculation Vanik would seek election next November in the 22nd District, now served by Mrs. Frances P. Bolton, Lake County Republican.

The statement was issued here by the office of Vanik, who is in Washington.

Bad Weather Hits Sicily

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Rain, snow, wind and more tremors worsened the misery today of western Sicily, hit by a powerful new shock Thursday after a massive earthquake Jan. 15.

Officials reported that the toll from the new shock now stood at nine dead and 87 injured.

This added to the hundreds killed and injured in the disastrous quake that left a dozen communities in ruins 10 days earlier.

The new quake sent thousands in refugee tent centers and tens of thousands from Palermo and other cities on the fringe of the disaster area fleeing into the open to huddle again around bonfires.

Two more tremors ripped through the area this morning. Police reported that Mafia elements were buying the surviving livestock of depressed refugees at ruinously low prices.

The government has launched a program to pay $800 to the head of every family that lost its home in the quakes.

Pneumonia, Flu Deaths Increase

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Deaths from pneumonia and influenza continued to increase throughout much of the nation during the third week in January, the National Communicable Disease Center reported today.

Based on reports from 122 cities, the pneumonia and influenza death total rose to 1,177 in the week ended Jan. 20, the CDC said.

For the previous week the total was 1,054.

Hamilton Man To Face Trial

CINCINNATI (AP)—A federal grand jury returned a true bill against Roy C. Sloneker of Hamilton Thursday on four counts of embezzling.

Sloneker, 32, was charged with embezzling $14,000 from the Federal Savings and Loan Association in Hamilton where he was employed.

Plan Brings Dissension In GOP Ranks

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's General Assembly gave grudging approval early today to a congressional redistricting plan and readied it for shipment to a federal court to meet a 4 p.m. deadline.

But the marathon session that completed enactment resulted in a rebuff for the GOP administration and angry feelings among majority Republicans that it may take some time to smooth.

The House passed the measure at 2:25 a.m., a half hour after Senate action and nearly 16 hours after the grueling session that started before noon Thursday.

Administration spokesmen said a state plan would be used to fly the bill to the U.S. District Court in Cleveland which ordered the legislature to remap the state into districts virtually equal in population. Present districts varying as much as 33 per cent from the smallest to the largest were invalidated by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The key issue between GOP Gov. James A. Rhodes and some Republicans was an assertion by Rhodes that the federal court would not approve any variation in excess of 2 per cent. At the start of the recess session two weeks ago, he submitted a plan that provided for a variation of less than 1 per cent.

But the bill that emerged after heated argument between the Senate, where the governor's strength was the greatest, and the House, provided for a spread in population from the smallest to the largest district of 2.4 per cent.

Rhodes was not available in the early morning house, but John M. McElroy — his top aide — told reporters "he will give it some study." There were unconfirmed reports earlier that Rhodes might veto a measure that exceeded his population recommendation.

A veto automatically would place the entire matter in the hands of the federal court which could, and probably would, restrict the state itself. McElroy said he understood the three-judge panel in Cleveland would hold a hearing on the bill Saturday.

Junket by Solons Aids Dollar Drain

WASHINGTON (AP) — A week after President Johnson curtailed foreign travel by government employees, a House subcommittee is touring the Pacific and, a Treasury official says, contributing to the dollar drain.

The subcommittee says its three-week tour doesn't affect the balance of payments.

But William W. Diehl, director of the Treasury's Office of International Economic Activity, said in an interview that despite a Congress-mandated bookkeeping system which provides local currency for congressional tourists, the net effect of the trip is to spend dollars abroad.

In no country the group is visiting does the United States have a foreign currency balance, said Diehl.

"If we don't have a foreign currency balance on hand," said Diehl, "our disbursing officer overseas have to go into the market with dollars and replenish their foreign currencies."

Every dollar thus spent, he said, is a contribution to the balance of payments deficit.

The trip by a House Public Works subcommittee is centered around a six-day conference of the International Road Federation starting Sunday in Sydney, Australia. Members stopped over in Tahiti Thursday.

Frank Turner, director of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, was supposed to go, too. But he canceled out Tuesday after Johnson ordered a cut in government workers' travel abroad.

The President has no control of congressional touring.

Rep. Frank M. Clark, D-Pa., chairman of the subcommittee, said before the group left Washington Wednesday that the conference is valuable as a forum for new ideas, new ways of building highways, new ideas in transportation.

Items on the agenda include

Pacification Chief Quits In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The head of South Vietnam's pacification program has submitted his resignation from the Army, a spokesman for the Vietnamese joint general staff said today.

Informed sources said the officer, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Duc Thang, is considered by Americans who work with him to be one of the military regime's most aggressive, thoroughgoing officials. He long has been disillusioned over Saigon's inability to meet its commitment, in the countryside, one source said.

A western source said Thang will get a new post dealing with pacification. But there appeared to be no reason for Thang to attempt to resign his job and to quit the Army if there were a simple shifting of titles.

Thang was not available today for comment.

If Thang is headed out, it could have serious repercussions on the slowly evolving pacification program which Thang's personality, drive and ability got off the ground after eight years of failure. U.S. officials say the outcome of the pacification effort ultimately will determine the future of South Vietnam.

"Operations of the Delaware River and Bay Authority."

"Low Cost Road Construction in Thailand," and Beef Roads in Queensland."

Two of the six days are set aside for an open house and scenic tours during this Australian summer.

Blame U.S. For Laotian Outbreak

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Pathet Lao high command claimed today "new military plots in Laos" by the United States had prompted Communist forces to mount recent attacks on Laotian outposts.

Communist forces two weeks ago drove neutralist Lao government troops out of the strategic Nam Bac Valley base in northern Laos. On Thursday, Lao military sources said North Vietnamese troops captured southern Laotian outpost and forced the garrison to flee into South Vietnam.

There was no word today on the fate of a Laotian government battalion and some 2,000 civilians that fled in the face of the Communist attack on Ban Houeisane.

The outpost is near the Ho Chi Minh trail, the major Communist supply route for men and material headed for South Vietnam.

The Lao commander of Ban Houeisane reported he was trying to reach the U.S. Special Forces camp at Khe Sah in South Vietnam, an area that has been under increasing Communist pressure itself in the last few days.

The function of the outpost was to harass North Vietnamese forces moving down the Ho Chi Minh trail and to provide information on troop and supply movements for U.S. bombing strikes on the trail.

The increased tempo of Communist attacks in Laos has been matched by a surge of activity on the Ho Chi Minh trail. Intelligence sources in Saigon believe the stepped-up Communist activity in Laos indicates a major North Vietnamese offensive in South Vietnam.

Vanik Sets Seat Shift

CLEVELAND (AP)—U.S. Rep. Charles A. Vanik, Cleveland Democrat, issued a statement here today that he would not run for reelection to Congress from the 21st District of Ohio and would announce "in the very near future" what other district seat he would seek.

The 21st District as reapportioned by the legislature is a predominantly Negro East Side area and it is considered likely by political experts that a Negro congressman will be elected there.

There has been speculation Vanik would seek election next November in the 22nd District, now served by Mrs. Frances P. Bolton, Lake County Republican.

The statement was issued here by the office of Vanik, who is in Washington.

North Koreans See War Coming

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

A former general in the Soviet Army, drilled by the Kremlin in how to communize North Korea, now occupies the spotlight in a tense crisis which conceivably could bring his Russian mentors into confrontation with the United States.

Kim Il Sung, premier of North Korea, is described by those who knew him in the old days as a man who never had an original thought. His thoughts today may not be original, but if a pro-Communist writer's reports about them are true, he is convinced that a new war with the United States is all but inevitable.

The writer is Wilfred Burchett, an Australian who for two decades has reported from Communist capitals and war fronts and who often echoes the hardest of Communist lines.

Burchett describes the views of Kim and other North Korean leaders in a book, "Again Korea," to be published by International Publishers of New York. It is written wholly from the Communist viewpoint and places on the United States all the blame for tension in the Korean peninsula.

The way Burchett puts it, the North Korean leaders are convinced that for 18 years the United States has been plotting war against them, and they fully expect another round of Korean conflict.

Premier Kim, a roly-poly man of 56 who has been a Communist since his boyhood, is pictured as gloomily emphasizing that "things may be destroyed again" in North Korea, 15 years after the end of the Korean conflict of 1950-53.

Kim's representative on the Military Armistice Commission, Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Kook, is represented as feeling that there is "overwhelming evidence" that the United States is intent on launching a new war.

He is a member of the Masonic Lodge and Past Exalted Ruler of the Circleville BPO Elks, and served as postmaster in Circleville from 1920 to 1924. Arrangements will be completed at Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

Mrs. Linda C. Allison, 28, Route 4, was dead on arrival 7 a.m. Friday at Berger Hospital.

Born Oct. 31, 1939 in Washington, D.C., she was the daughter of Cecil and Norma Merritt Rice, Route 4.

Surviving are both parents; three daughters, Shawa Raye, Dianna Kaye and Teresa Lynn, all of the home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, Chillicothe, maternal great grandmother, Mrs. J. H. McBee, Washington, C. H.; and one brother, Blaine Rice, Missouri.

Funeral arrangements will be completed by Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

C&O Trains Still Running
CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—The two C&O passenger trains running between Huntington, W. Va., and Cincinnati, serving points in between continued in operation today as Ohio Public Utilities officials sought a temporary and permanent restraining order against abandonment of the trains until a public hearing is held.

The PUCO officials went in to Common Pleas Court to ask Judge Howard Goldsberry for the restraining orders. Judge Goldsberry asked the railroad to continue to operate the trains until he had time to study the requests.

Collins To Seek Smathers Seat
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former Gov. LeRoy Collins formally announced Thursday he is seeking the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate seat to be vacated by Sen. George Smathers, who said he will retire this year.

Collins, who was governor of Florida from 1954 to 1960, will oppose state Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth for the nomination. After leaving the governor's chair, Collins became president of the National Association of Broadcasters. He resigned that post to become the first director of the Community Relations Service. He later served as an undersecretary of commerce.

Greenville Fire Causes Damage

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Fire swept through a two-story building here Thursday and despite the fact that the city's new firehouse is across the street, the structure burned down.

Officials were investigating today the fire which broke out in the basement and heavily damaged the building now serving as a coffee house for teenagers.

The building was Greenville's old fire station.

Fire Damages Truck

Fire of an undetermined origin damaged a truck-tractor owned by James Lemaster of Millport at 7:40 a.m. today.

The blaze started in the mattress of the sleeper compartment of the truck. The mattress was destroyed and the heat damaged the glass in the truck.

Auto Damaged

Mike Gilmore, 118½ Seyfert Ave., told Circleville Police that his car had been damaged while parked in the garage at the rear of his home.

According to Gilmore, the antenna was bent and the rear glass scratched.

Billfold Lost

Mrs. Joseph A. Dean, Route 3, told the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department she lost a red leather billfold Thursday.

The billfold contained $120, a credit card and her drivers license. She told Deputy George Linder she lost it near Big Bear.

Patrol Cites 23 Drivers into Municipal Court

The State Highway Patrol filed charges of traffic violations against five local and 18 out-of-county motorists Thursday in Municipal Court.

Donald Lee Conrad, 25, New Holland, pleaded guilty before the bench of Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb to charges of speeding 63 miles in a 50 mile zone. He was fined $15 and costs.

George Longworth, 59, Orient, forfeited a $24 bond set on charges of straddling traffic lanes.

Howard Reed, 34, Ashville, forfeited a $40 bond set on charges of speeding 78 miles in a 60 mile zone.

Jackie Hanson, 35, Williamsport, forfeited a $29 bond set on charges of speeding 60 miles in a 50 mile zone.

The court collected $448 in fines and bond forfeitures from 18 out-of-county motorists.

City Police Get New Cruiser

The Circleville Police Department accepted delivery on its new cruiser today, a 1968 Dodge purchased from Wes Edstrom Motors.

The car is in operation. A 1966 model police cruiser was used as a trade-in. City Police have four vehicles. Two marked cruisers, one unmarked car and a 1948 three-wheel motorcycle.

Officials were investigating today the fire which broke out in the basement and heavily damaged the building now serving as a coffee house for teenagers.

The building was Greenville's old fire station.

Mayor Thomas is still looking glum about the weather . . . afraid the tourist business might drop off. I don't know though . . . there is still some argument as to whether that guy last year was a tourist or not because he didn't spend any money . . . He came down Deercreek in a canoe and camped all night down by the bridge. He sent a kid up to Red Fry's drugstore for some coffee . . . Never got it though because the kid couldn't carry it back . . . Darn stuff ate holes through everything they put it in. Red says the grounds are getting weaker now.

There was a lot of activity at the gym Monday night as some of the elementary students demonstrated their physical fitness. It was interesting and amusing to participants and spectators. Rick Pond, phys ed instructor, supervised the demonstration and explained how the various drills and exercises develop and strengthen muscles. Approximately 30 eager students took part as parents looked on. It looked like a lot more fun than it used to be at 5 a.m. in the military. I overheard some fathers say they would like to try out on the trampoline, but fortunately they didn't.

Harvey Looney is the Water Commissioner. He called it the other day . . . Said he had a deal going but needed help with the business end . . . could I meet him in ten minutes? Well, my big chance! I rushed to the appointed spot. Sure enough Harvey was there looking over a water leak and handed me a shovel . . . the business end, of course.

Townpeople were glad to welcome Gerry Christopher home from Vietnam last week and Nick Williams from Germany this week.

We may have a new business in town before long. Guy up the street says he heard most traffic accidents are caused by people losing their heads and he has invented a new type of seat belt that fastens around the neck. He's going to test it this weekend out on Jimtown hill if he gets his bicycle back. He lost it last week in Deercreek testing his biskater.

C&O Trains Still Running

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—The two C&O passenger trains running between Huntington, W. Va., and Cincinnati, serving points in between continued in operation today as Ohio Public Utilities officials sought a temporary and permanent restraining order against abandonment of the trains until a public hearing is held.

The PUCO officials went in to Common Pleas Court to ask Judge Howard Goldsberry for the restraining orders. Judge Goldsberry asked the railroad to continue to operate the trains until he had time to study the requests.

Collins To Seek Smathers Seat

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former Gov. LeRoy Collins formally announced Thursday he is seeking the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate seat to be vacated by Sen. George Smathers, who said he will retire this year.

Collins, who was governor of Florida from 1954 to 1960, will oppose state Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth for the nomination. After leaving the governor's chair, Collins became president of the National Association of Broadcasters. He resigned that post to become the first director of the Community Relations Service. He later served as an undersecretary of commerce.

Mayor Thomas is still looking glum about the weather . . . afraid the tourist business might drop off. I don't know though . . . there is still some argument as to whether that guy last year was a tourist or not because he didn't spend any money . . . He came down Deercreek in a canoe and camped all night down by the bridge. He sent a kid up to Red Fry's drugstore for some coffee . . . Never got it though because the kid couldn't carry it back . . . Darn stuff ate holes through everything they put it in. Red says the grounds are getting weaker now.

There was a lot of activity at the gym Monday night as some of the elementary students demonstrated their physical fitness. It was interesting and amusing to participants and spectators. Rick Pond, phys ed instructor, supervised the demonstration and explained how the various drills and exercises develop and strengthen muscles. Approximately 30 eager students took part as parents looked on. It looked like a lot more fun than it used to be at 5 p. m. in the military. I overheard some fathers say they would like to try out on the trampoline, but fortunately they didn't.

Mr. Landon Holbrook celebrated his 32nd birthday January 15th.

Draft Laws Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE: In an effort to create a greater public understanding of the laws and regulations governing the induction of personnel into the Armed Forces, the Selective Service System has prepared a series of pertinent questions and corresponding responses concerning provisions of the draft law. Here is another in the series.

Q. When I reported for physical examination at the Armed Forces Examining Station, I was rejected for being ten pounds overweight. I am not now overweight. Am I expected to report that change to my local board?

A. Yes, within ten days of the date it is discovered that you are no longer overweight.

Q. I am in jail for 90 days and my 18th birthday is coming up next week. How do I get registered so I don't get in some more trouble?

A. The superintendent of the institution is probably a Selective Service registrar and will register you on the way out. If not, register immediately after your release and explain the delay to your local board in writing.

Q. I am classified I-Y. Does this mean I will be re-examined?

A. You may or may not be re-examined depending upon the reasons you are not currently qualified for military service. When other registrants in your age group with similar classification and circumstances are examined, your local board will review your case.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Biery of Columbus spent Saturday night and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. George Reid and visited her father in Berger Hospital, where he underwent surgery for a knee injury last week.

Guru Mahesh Yogi Sees Meditation Need

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—He sits, legs folded, on a white deer skin rug, a small, bearded man in a white toga with a thin, reedy voice. The rug, followers explain, is to insulate him from vibrations that would disturb his serenity.

People today, he says, need

"to experience the source of bliss." And it is realized, says Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, through "transcendental meditation"—a kind of relaxed focusing of the mind on its clear, uncluttered center—a discipline he advocates to cure the world's woes.

"The answer is to let life be free from suffering," he says, adding that this freedom comes once inward meditation dispels the petty drives and circumstances that torment human beings and cause their strife.

"For world peace, we have to have peace for the individual," says the visiting Hindu teacher. It's an esoteric message for the pragmatic West, but it is one which is gaining a widening following in this country, through numerous swamis of sundry methods, and a spreading network of meditation centers in many cities.

It's also an increasingly popular attraction in lecture halls and on college campuses, where various visiting swamis pack in the audiences.

Among students, "there's an unusual amount of interest in Oriental philosophy and the value of contemplation," said Yale's Catholic chaplain, the Rev. Richard R. Russell.

"It seems to come from a kind of frustration with social activism, a sense of despair at trying to change the ghettos or stop the war, and a turning to a more inner search."

Altogether there are more than 100 Hindu teaching centers in the United States, many of them started in recent years, led by swamis—Indian monks ordained to their orders, or by yogis, ascetics who have mastered the yoga technique and exercises.

They're frequently called "our guru"—which also means teacher—by followers, who include business executives, plumbers, lawyers, doctors, professors, housewives and mini-skirted secretaries.

Hinduism, an ancient, complex religion of ritual, creed and polytheism, maintains that man, entangled in the material world and blind to his inner spiritual nature, can overcome these worldly distractions by his own discipline and achieve harmony with divine reality.

In the Hindu view, all great religions have validity. It is believed that God, at various times, reincarnates himself in material form on earth in response to human need.

The traveling swami who has captured the widest attention lately is Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, 56, who has influenced various celebrities, including the Beatles, and whose highly organized East Coast appearances this month drew big turnouts.

A diminutive man, not more than 5-feet-2, with white hair, gray beard, a double strand of beads around his neck and flowers in his arms, he has a vague, relaxed way about him, and laughs often and easily.

When newsmen needed him with questions about using public relations methods to spread his teachings, he said genially, "I would use any means to take people out of their sufferings to freedom."

Kasperak Burial Set in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Heart transplant patient Michael Kasperak is being buried today in Cleveland, where he was a steelworker for 30 years before heart trouble forced his retirement.

Services are being held at the Stas Funeral Home on Cleveland's West Side.

Kasperak, 54, received a heart transplant in an operation at Stanford University Medical Center in California Jan. 6. He died Sunday, and the body was flown to Cleveland Tuesday.

Griswold Chosen Head of OSATTC

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Caryl E. Griswold, 51, a trustee of Windham Township in Portage County, was re-elected Thursday president of the Ohio State Association of Township Trustees and Clerks at its annual convention here.

Other officers named were John Sanford of Madison County and James Torrens of Licking County, vice presidents, and Harold Bateson, Wood County, secretary-treasurer.

Man Sentenced In Slaying, Body Dumping

CHICAGO (AP)—An Ohioan was sentenced Thursday to 15-25 years in prison for the 1966 slaying of a Chicago man whose body was dumped in Ohio.

Ora Charles Duncan, 21, was sentenced after he had pleaded guilty to strangling 52-year-old Derrell Williams in Williams' apartment in Chicago. The body was found Aug. 11, 1966, in a quarry near Van Wert, Ohio.

Duncan and a codefendant, John Sparks, 32, Indianapolis, Ind., were arrested in Indianapolis after they were seen driving in Williams' car.

Sparks is scheduled to appear next Tuesday in Chicago Criminal Court.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Housing and Urban Development announced Thursday a $233,206 loan to Middletown, Ohio, for planning a civic rehabilitation urban renewal project.

Court Speeds Rail Merger Paperwork

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has speeded its paperwork to permit the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroads to carry out their merger Feb. 1. Meanwhile, a smaller eastern railroad is urging quick federal approval of the proposed merger of the Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio.

The Supreme Court took the formal step Wednesday of forwarding its earlier decision approving the Penn-Central merger to a lower court to clear the way for the two lines to start operations as the nation's largest railroad next month.

The bankrupt Central Railroad Co. of New Jersey asked the Interstate Commerce Commission Wednesday to make it a part of a Norfolk & Western-Chesapeake & Ohio merger and approve the pending combination promptly. Otherwise, said the Justice Department, the ICC and the Justice Department had cited the financial plight of a second bankrupt commuter line, the New Haven Railroad, in asking the early Supreme Court action on the Penn-Central combination.

The merger permits the Penn-Central to begin immediate financial assistance to the New Haven, including $25 million in loans.

The Supreme Court normally takes at least 25 days to forward its judgments to the lower court and this would have meant the New York Federal Court that originally approved the merger would not have received official notification of the high court's go-ahead until later in February. The Supreme Court's ruling had been announced Jan. 15.

Kingston News Report

By Mrs. Ruth Ann Holbrook
Phone 642-5662

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nelms (Edna Sifford), Route 1, Kingston, are the parents of an 8-pound, 4-ounce baby girl, born last Sunday at Chillicothe Hospital.

The Zane Trace "Student-of-the-Month" awards for December were recently presented at a student assembly. The students named for this month were: Seventh Grades, Rebecca Sparks and Tony Dresbach; Eighth Graders, Cheryl Curtis and Ricky Edler.

The Zane Trace Junior High School basketball team, cheerleaders, managers and scorekeepers attended the Ohio State-Georgia Tech. basketball game in St. John arena on Jan. 22. Funds for the admission price to the games were made possible through the efforts of the students sale of Christmas candles. Accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hooper, Mr. Sam Hall and Mr. Paul Sturgill and several parents.

Weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Holbrook and family were Mr. and Mrs. Eishmil Holbrook and children from Bloomington, Ind. Also visiting from Fort Wayne, Ind., were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Holbrook.

The Kingston Eves and Elves Mothers Club are planning a bake sale Feb. 10, at 10:30 a.m. at the Clifton Auto Parts Store, Kingston.

Miss Connie Sue Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barker, 45 Second Street, Kingston and Mr. Nickolas Glenn Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Morris, Columbus, were married Dec. 30, in the Circleville Church of the Nazarene. Rev. Alva Boyer officiated at the service.

The January meeting of the Kingston Hospital Guild 13 was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Zwayer. The February meeting of the Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. Onley Parsons, South Main Street, Kingston. Dr. Charles Clifton will be the guest speaker. His topic will be heart transplant.

Mrs. William S. Rhoades has returned home after spending three weeks in California visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Sheldon and sons in Pasadena. While in California she went to Covina, California to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mitchell and children, who are former Kingston residents.

Mrs. John Rolston and her brothers Herbert, Howard and Harry Edwards were called to Rupert, W. Va., last week by the death of their elder brother, Henry Edwards.

Mrs. Kenneth Funk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hockerberry arrived last Thursday from Tucson, Ariz. The Hockerberry's are former residents of Kingston.

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church met recently at the home of Mrs. Carl Hohenstein Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pfancuff are in Florida for a three weeks vacation.

Mrs. Herbert Lemley was hostess of the January meeting of the WSCS in her home. Projects discussed were a bake sale before Easter and serving a Civic Club luncheon on March 19. Miss Gerturde Seniff had charge of the program.

Don Beeman has received his green belt from the Ko-Sutemi-Dojo Karate and Judo Club. Don is thirteen years old.

The Zane Trace Senior Class will sponsor a dance Jan. 27 from 8 to 11 o'clock in the Zane Trace Junior High building in Kingston.

Members of the Kingston Volunteer Fire Department traveled to Point Pleasant W. Va., this past Sunday to help with rescue operations in finding some of the remaining bodies, of people lost in the recent Silver Bridge disaster. They left early Sunday morning and returned in the afternoon.

Mr. Landon Holbrook celebrated his 32nd birthday January 15th.

Draft Laws Explained

EDITOR'S NOTE: In an effort to create a greater public understanding of the laws and regulations governing the induction of personnel into the Armed Forces, the Selective Service System has prepared a series of pertinent questions and corresponding responses concerning provisions of the draft law. Here is another in the series.

Q. When I reported for physical examination at the Armed Forces Examining Station, I was rejected for being ten pounds overweight. Am I expected to report that change to my local board?

A. Yes, within ten days of the date it is discovered that you are no longer overweight.

Q. I am in jail for 90 days and my 18th birthday is coming up next week. How do I get registered so I don't get in some more trouble?

A. The superintendent of the institution is probably a Selective Service registrar and will register you on the way out. If not, register immediately after your release and explain the delay to your local board in writing.

Q. I am classified I-Y. Does this mean I will be re-examined?

A. You may or may not be re-examined depending upon the reasons you are not currently qualified for military service. When other registrants in your age group with similar classification and circumstances are examined, your local board will review your case.

Laurelville

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Biery of Columbus spent Saturday night and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. George Reid and visited her father in Berger Hospital, where he underwent surgery for a knee injury last week.

Norman Edwards and Mrs. Audrey Reid visited their uncle, Jos Elick, in Veteran's Hospital, Dayton. Mr. Elick suffered a stroke several weeks ago at his home.

Robert Bowers returned to his home last week after being a medical patient in Berger Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Swackhammer and daughter of Somerset were Thursday guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards. Her visitors on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Karshner of near Rockbridge.

Mrs. Howard Thompson fell last Sunday at her home and sprained her ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton DeLong and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ross returned home last week after spending two weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert White of Logan were Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. Ray Poling.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Karshner are spending several weeks with her daughter and son-in-law in Houston, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradley and two daughters of near Amanda were Wednesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bradley.

Guru Mahesh Yogi Sees Meditation Need

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—He sits, legs folded, on a white deer skin rug, a small, bearded man in a white toga with a thin, reedy voice. The rug, followers explain, is to insulate him from vibrations that would disturb his serenity. People today, he says, need

"to experience the source of bliss." And it is realized, says Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, through "transcendental meditation"—a kind of relaxed focusing of the mind on its clear, uncluttered center—a discipline he advocates to cure the world's woes. "The answer is to let life be free from suffering," he says, adding that this freedom comes once inward meditation dispels the petty drives and circumstances that torment human beings and cause their strife. "For world peace, we have to have peace for the individual," says the visiting Hindu teacher. It's an esoteric message for the pragmatic West, but it is one which is gaining a widening following in this country, through numerous swamis of sundry methods, and a spreading network of meditation centers in many cities.

own discipline and achieve harmony with divine reality. In the Hindu view, all great religions have validity. It is believed that God, at various times, reincarnates himself in material form on earth in response to human need. The traveling swami who has captured the widest attention lately is Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, 56, who has influenced various celebrities, including the Beatles, and whose highly organized East Coast appearances this month drew big turnouts. A diminutive man, not more than 5-feet-2, with white hair, gray beard, a double strand of beads around his neck and flowers in his arms, he has a vague, relaxed way about him, and laughs often and easily. When newsmen needed him with questions about using public relations methods to spread his teachings, he said genially, "I would use any means to take people out of their sufferings to freedom."

The Supreme Court took the formal step Wednesday of forwarding its earlier decision approving the Penn-Central merger to a lower court to clear the way for the two lines to start operations as the nation's largest railroad next month.

The bankrupt Central Railroad Co. of New Jersey asked the Interstate Commerce Commission Wednesday to make it a part of a Norfolk & Western-Chesapeake & Ohio merger and approve the pending combination promptly. Vanishing Landlubbers

No cartoonist ever pictured the American image as that of the modern mariner, but if present trends in part-time activities continue, skimming across the water will rival auto touring in popularity. There are now more than 10 million pleasure boats within U. S. boundaries, a six-fold increase since World War II.

Taking to the water has been a natural pastime at seashore resorts for many years, but the contemporary skipper frequently does not go down to the sea. He brings it to him. Man-made lakes have been springing up like oases — which is what they are.

Boating is a healthful sport, although partial replacement of sails by motors has reduced physical benefits. It answers the need of many people to get away from it all, to disentangle themselves from the many frustrations and irritations of congested city life.

It presents a wonderful opportunity for family participation — an important point in an era when family ties are strained by the many diverse activities beckoning to each member.

People once wondered what they would do with their time if they didn't spend it working. Modern society is providing the answers. Not everyone has learned how to spend leisure hours, but growing attraction of golf, bowling, boating and similar activities is reducing the effectiveness of negative distraction.

According to Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Cliff Robertson is a take a chance guy.

Although the handsome young actor has been one of the busiest and most successful performers in television, he felt that in none of his 13 movies had he been given a really great role.

"Some of them were pretty suffocating," he said. "So since the mountain would not come to me, I decided to go to the mountain."

Five years ago he bought the film rights to a short story called "Flowers for Algernon," by Daniel Keyes. It is the touching story of a young bakery worker who aspires to lead a normal life but is handicapped by the fact he has an intelligence quotient of only 59.

Retitled "Charly"—that's how the retarded boy spells his name—the film will be released by ABC-Paramount in a few months.

"I've had this story in my guts for five long years," said

Cliff, who worked on the writing of the screen play and also beat on Hollywood's golden doors until he found a financial sponsor. "I may not make a nickel out of it, but I'll at least have the satisfaction of having done it. I didn't want to be the kind of a guy who 20 years from now would be sitting around saying to himself, 'If only I—'"

Actually, Robertson is probably overcritical of his own work in films. His screen credits include "Picnic," "PT-109," "The Best Man," and "The Honey Pot."

But he did get a little vexed at having some of the best roles he played on television or Broadway, wind up on the screen being played by Jack Lemmon, Paul Newman, and Marlon Brando, friendly as he happens to be with each of them.

"I felt like I was often a bridesmaid, but never the bride," he said. "My career has been one of defensive fighting. Now I've got a chance for the knockout."

Since youth Robertson has led a life of knockabout adventure and variety. At the age of nine he was working a newspaper route in his native La Jolla, Calif.

At 14 he was doing odd jobs around an airport in exchange for free flying lessons. At 16 he was a seaman aboard a cargo ship in the Pacific when it was bombed by a Japanese plane.

While attending Antioch (Ohio) College, he wrote a radio column and served as an announcer. During the later years of World War II he was a junior Navy officer aboard ammunition ships in Atlantic and Mediterranean combat areas.

Determined to follow a theatrical career, Cliff studied at the Actors Studio here, earning his way as a bus boy, waiter, stevedore, and taxi driver. His first professional success was with an acting group that toured the Catskills Mountain resorts. His pay: $5 a week and room and board.

Escalation in Space

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

If nothing positive comes out of the recent "peace" dispute over the semantic difference between "could" and "will" as used in various North Vietnamese offers to "talk" after cessation of the bombing, the pressure on President Johnson to step up the war will be close to irresistible. Already, in Washington, attention is centering on what must happen when the weather changes in Southeast Asia. The idea of "hot pursuit" of the enemy into Laos is in the air.

Well, the U.S. people might as well face it: there is a geographical imperative to every war, and the imperative cannot be dodged forever. War, between grumpy and determined opponents, swings eventually on supply, and supply moves over well-recognized highways. It follows that the nation which can sever its opponent's supply lines will end up by dictating, or at least making a favorable settlement, at the peace table.

In the Civil War, President Lincoln discovered the geographical imperative only after an unsatisfactory period of futile pounding at Gen. Robert E. Lee's front in Virginia. After Gen. George McClellan's dispiriting stand-off along the Potomac, Generals Grant and Sherman broke the struggle wide open by shearing the Confederacy in two along the line of the Mississippi and cutting in through Georgia and the Carolinas to roll up Lee's rear. Meanwhile, the Union navy blockaded Charleston, Mobile, and New Orleans, risking trouble with Great Britain. But, because Britain needed America's wheat, the blockade never turned the battle into an international war.

All this is obvious stuff from the books. And it is just as obvious that the penalty of refusing to exploit the geographical imperative is a bloody dragged-out mess, an escalation in time that is more brutal than any conceivable escalation in space. In World War I, the Western Front in France became a meat-grinder operation, with the appalling casualties of the Somme and Verdun, simple because Winston Churchill's attempt to link up with Russia in Germany's rear failed at Gallipoli. (The irony of this became apparent after the war, when it was discovered that the Allies had called off the Gallipoli campaign just when the Turkish forces were running out of ammunition.)

In World War II, Gen. Douglas MacArthur exploited the geographical imperative by continuously getting behind the Japanese forward positions on the southwestern Pacific flank while the U.S. Navy attacked frontally in the north. The Pacific War came to an effective end when Japan's oil route to the Indies was severed at the line of the Philippines; there was never any need to consider invading Japan, or to use the atomic bomb on Hiroshima.

The geographical fact of the Vietnamese War is that it is being fought in a peninsula, but could be closed off laterally. But, absurdly, only the North Vietnamese are privileged to make flanking moves in the space involved. The twin geographical keys to the war are the Ho Chi Minh trail through Laos and the ocean approaches to Haiphong and other North Vietnamese ports. In Civil War terms, the Ho Chi Minh trail is the Mississippi; Haiphong is Charleston, or Mobile. But our General Westmoreland is not permitted to act like Grant or Sherman, and nobody is allowed to mention Admiral Farragut. We are fighting the war as Lincoln would have fought the Civil War if he had resolved to do no more than invade Kentucky.

General Thomas Lane says we could put a million men into South Vietnam and still get nothing better than a long and bloody stalemate if we aren't allowed to touch the Ho Chi Minh trail. There is the danger, of course, that Red China and Russia might react in an incalculable manner if we really tried to win. Lincoln faced the same unknown when he gave the order to keep British ships from moving into Confederate ports. But Lincoln had that northern wheat to use as a diplomatic weapon. Similarly, the U.S. has Chiang Kai-shek's army of 600,000 men on Red China's flank.

There may be good political arguments bound up with atomic fears for not attempting to sever the supply arteries of the Viet Cong. But if the Ho Chi Minh trail and Haiphong are to be forever sacrosanct, then Senator Eugene McCarthy is obviously right: we should try to wind up the struggle with the best deal we can make. If escalation of the war in space cannot be accepted with a view to winning it, escalation in time will only lead to years — and perhaps decades — of useless American deaths.

There's something new — well, let's say fairly new — on the American scene this winter. It's the snowmobile—a small tracked vehicle that just eats up the fluffy white snow that too often keeps the big family hack in the garage.

The snowmobile has really sprouted big this cold spell. The number of them being sold in the U.S. this season is expected to reach 175,000—a better than 50 per cent increase over '66-'67.

The snowmobile is also known as the skimobile. However, by any name, say owners, it's kind of fun.

According to Grandpappy Jenkins, the snowmobile is just a miniature, motorized modern version of the old-fashioned sleigh. Maybe so, but who, these days, can afford one of those old-time winter vehicles except a noted personality—S. Claus by name?

Incidentally, while on the subject of winter—did you know there are now 710 operating ski areas in North America? May sound hard to believe—but it's a cold fact!

A TIMID LITTLE MAN, attending an important night baseball game with office cronies, announced that he had to go home with the score deadlocked at the end of thirteen exciting innings.

"I have to explain to my wife," he said sadly. "Explain what?" asked one of his cronies. "How do I know?" shrugged the timid little man. "I'm not home yet."

Critic John Chapman, waxing nostalgic, harks back to the wondrous Music Box Revue, unveiled by Producer Sam Harris in 1921, with a score by Irving Berlin, and a wondrous cast that included William Collier, Florence Moore, Clark and McCullough, Miriam Hopkins, Ivy Sawyer, Wilda Bennett, Joe Santley, and Sam Bernard. That was the show that introduced "Say It With Music" and "Everybody Step" and where Sam Bernard signed, "I remember when a man couldn't LIFT a dollar's worth of corned beef and cabbage!"

The public relations man at Tokyo's late lamented Imperial Hotel sounded like a natural for politics when asked if it was true that the hotel designed so perfectly by Frank Lloyd Wright was ticketed for the demolition squad. The P.R. man answered, "We are not yet at the stage of announcement—only at the stage of denial."

Studios Lie Idle

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —It's a scandal, says veteran film maker Walter Wanger, that the huge stages of the major movie studios today lie idle as tombs.

Never except in periods of labor strikes have the studios been so devoid of feature production. A survey of shooting schedules discloses that 20th Century-Fox, Columbia, Universal, Paramount and Disney have no films in production. MGM this week started one, "The Split," and Warner Bros. Seven Arts is completing one, "I Love You, Alice B. Toklas."

Nor is there much television filming at the studios. This is the time of year when most series are finishing their seasons and laying off until they learn if options are being picked up.

The situation is saddening to Wanger, whose career dates to the era when the studios were pouring forth 500 features a year. He served as executive capacities at Paramount, Columbia and MGM and has had a distinguished career as producer of films from "Foreign Correspondent" to "Cleopatra."

Wanger has lately made his headquarters in New York, so he brings a geographical as well as a historical perspective to Hollywood's present plight.

"It's shocking to see the studios so empty," he observed. "It's so unnecessary, too. There never was a more promising time for the film business. The world market has expanded enormously, and the new generation is clamoring for films. But Hollywood is not supplying them."

"The major companies have lost the initiative. They should be developing films about the exciting things that are going on in the world. Instead, they wait for agents to bring them packages."

Much of the cause of the major companies' inertia can be found in the studios themselves, Wanger observed. These levitating film factories no longer suit today's business, he said, citing a reported figure of $9 million to maintain one of the major studios for a year. The handful of films made there must absorb such costs.

"Perhaps Robert Aldrich has the right idea in buying a little studio of his own," said Wanger. "It might be better to go back to the old system, when there were many little studios all over Hollywood. The major companies could amalgamate into a single lot that would function as a service company."

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Friday, Jan. 26, the 26th day of 1968. There are 340 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1942, U.S. troops landed in northern Ireland. It was the first American Expeditionary Force to arrive in Europe in World War II.

On this date: In 1679, the keel of the first commercial ship on the Great Lakes, "Le Griffon," was laid.

In 1837, Michigan joined the Union as the 26th state.

In 1861, Louisiana seceded from the United States.

In 1880, the late Gen. Douglas MacArthur was born.

In 1944, the World War II battle for the Anzio beachhead was raging in Italy.

In 1952, mobs in Cairo, Egypt, destroyed American, British and French property and burned the famous Shepherd's Hotel.

Ten years ago — The Soviet Union said Western bases around that country would have to be liquidated before there could be talks about ending production of intercontinental missiles.

Five years ago — Communist China said it would have nuclear weapons in the not too distant future.

One year ago—President Lyndon B. Johnson dropped his 3.2 per cent guideline for wage increases.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Trying to guess at this moment what the North Koreans and the North Vietnamese Communists are up to is like trying to guess why Santa Claus always looks fat. It's a bit of a fantasy.

The reason is simple: Nothing positive has been disclosed yet about the motives behind their most recent actions.

This week the North Koreans captured the USS Pueblo, a Navy intelligence-gathering ship loaded with electronics, and her crew of 81 plus two civilians off the Korean coast. You really need a crystal ball on this one.

One idea comes to mind immediately: That the capture was part of a plot worked out with North Vietnam to add to the pressure on this country to make peace in Vietnam, for otherwise it might be faced with a war in Korea, too.

But before any guess is sensible one question has to be answered beyond dispute, and that hasn't happened yet: Was the American ship in international waters, where she would have a right to be, or was she in Korean territorial waters, spying on Korea?

There's not much doubt about the spying. The ship was equipped for that.

The North Koreans say the Pueblo was in their territorial waters and issued what they say is a "confession" by the American skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Mark Bucher, admitting his ship was spying within Korean territorial waters.

The Defense Department quickly called the alleged "confession" a "travesty on the facts" and that, judging by the kind of language used, Bucher couldn't have written the kind of statement attributed to him.

But—at the White House President Johnson's press secretary, George Christian, was something less than positive about where the ship was.

"To the best of our information," Christian said, it was in international waters. He refused to be more positive.

This brings up the memory of the American U-2 spy plane shot down over the Soviet Union in 1960 during the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. This government at first denied the plane was on a spy mission, tried to say it was simply gathering weather information.

The Soviets had too much evidence and a few days later the United States admitted the plane had been spying. But the guessing on this Korean episode is peanuts compared with some of the guessing about North Vietnam.

For weeks, perhaps months, there has been this kind of guessing:

North Vietnam believes public feeling in this country is so intensely antiwar that Johnson is bound to be defeated in this year's election and that then maybe business can be done with his Republican successor.

Until then, as this particular guess sees it, the North Vietnamese have decided they must continue the war doggedly. But there's a soft spot in this thinking.

Of the four Republicans talked of as possible presidential candidates, three are generally behind Johnson on the war. They are former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, and California's Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The fourth, Michigan's Gov. George Romney, has been all over the lot on the war but very recently backed Johnson on continued bombing of the North.

All kinds of hocus-pocus can be read into North Vietnam's persistent refusal to accept Johnson's condition for ending the bombing: That the North must give some assurance it would then be willing to talk peace quickly.

What could be the motives behind the refusal. Several come to mind:

That the North Vietnamese are not anxious to end the war; that the longer the war, the more antiwar sentiment in this country will pressure Johnson into making concessions; or that they're just mumbling about peace to make themselves look good in the eyes of the world.

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite

a lot of talk about 160 mile an hour trains, few Americans would believe that the description, "America's Modern Transportation Miracle," refers to railroads.

Instead, if presented a booklet of that title, they would expect to see pictures of jets whisking relaxed couples in silken smoothness to a distant island resort, to Europe or to the Orient.

The railroads are serious, however, and that quotation is used as the subtitle of a booklet produced by the Association of American Railroads called "Railroads Unlimited!" and carrying the inscription:

"A continentwide story of sweeping change and challenge—a modern industrial miracle . . ."

Why, then, has the public been so unaware of this great change by which American railroads are "overcoming awesome obstacles . . . moving along a track that leads to unlimited public service?"

Primarily because the revolution referred to is occurring, if at all, primarily in freight rather than passenger traffic. It refers to piggyback cars, unit trains, automatic freight car identification, mergers.

"We are faced with the hard facts of life," said Thomas Goodfellow, president of the association. "People have deserted us. The public says it doesn't want to ride trains," he said in an interview.

Goodfellow, who has described himself as a country boy but who is past president of the Long Island Rail Road, is certain that it wasn't the other way round—that rails weren't ingenious or progressive or broadminded enough to keep their passengers.

And, lest thousands of harried commuters take exception to so sweeping a statement, Goodfellow adds some qualifications. He believes that the future of rail passenger traffic exists in the heavily populated "corridors"—San Francisco-Los Angeles, Richmond-Boston, Chicago-Milwaukee, Dallas-Houston, for example—and, of necessity in commuter transportation.

"There is no future for the long haul passenger train," he said. "Some remnants are left, like the Florida service. But long haul service is being deserted very rapidly." Passengers now account for only 5 per cent of revenue.

As Goodfellow spoke, the Southern Pacific Co. was seeking to discontinue its City of San Francisco passenger train between Oakland and Chicago, claiming it was losing many thousands of dollars a year on the service.

No cartoonist ever pictured the American image as that of the modern mariner, but if present trends in part-time activities continue, skimming across the water will rival auto touring in popularity. There are now more than 10 million pleasure boats within U. S. boundaries, a six-fold increase since World War II.

Taking to the water has been a natural pastime at seashore resorts for many years, but the contemporary skipper frequently does not go down to the sea. He brings it to him. Man-made lakes have been springing up like oases — which is what they are.

Boating is a healthful sport, although partial replacement of sails by motors has reduced physical benefits. It answers the need of many people to get away from it all, to disentangle themselves from the many frustrations and irritations of congested city life.

It presents a wonderful opportunity for family participation — an important point in an era when family ties are strained by the many diverse activities beckoning to each member.

People once wondered what they would do with their time if they didn't spend it working. Modern society is providing the answers. Not everyone has learned how to spend leisure hours, but growing attraction of golf, bowling, boating and similar activities is reducing the effectiveness of negative distraction.

NEW YORK (AP) — Chiff Robertson is a take a chance guy.

Although the handsome young actor has been one of the busiest and most successful performers in television, he felt that in none of his 13 movies had he been given a really great role.

"Some of them were pretty suffocating," he said. "So since the mountain wouldn't come to me, I decided to go to the mountain."

Five years ago he bought the film rights to a short story called "Flowers for Algernon" by Daniel Keyes. It is the touching story of a young bakery worker who aspires to lead a normal life but is handicapped by the fact he has an intelligence quotient of only 59.

Retitled "Charly"—that's how the retarded boy spells his name—the film will be released by ABC-Paramount in a few months.

"I've had this story in my guts for five long years," said

Chiff, who worked on the writing of the screen play and also beat on Hollywood's golden doors until he found a financial sponsor. "I may not make a nickel out of it, but I'll at least have the satisfaction of having done it. I didn't want to be the kind of a guy who 20 years from now would be sitting around saying to himself, 'If only I—'"

Actually, Robertson is probably overcritical of his own work in films. His screen credits include "Picnic," "PT-109," "The Best Man," and "The Honey Pot."

But he did get a little vexed at having some of the best roles he played on television or Broadway, wind up on the screen being played by Jack Lemmon, Paul Newman, and Marlon Brando, friendly as he happens to be with each of them.

"I felt like I was often a bridesmaid, but never the bride," he said. "My career has been one of defensive fighting. Now I've got a chance for the knockout."

Since youth Robertson has led a life of knockabout adventure and variety. At the age of nine he was working a newspaper route in his native La Jolla, Calif.

At 14 he was doing odd jobs around an airport in exchange for free flying lessons. At 16 he was a seaman aboard a cargo ship in the Pacific when it was bombed by a Japanese plane.

While attending Antioch (Ohio) College, he wrote a radio column and served as an announcer. During the later years of World War II he was a junior Navy officer aboard ammunition ships in Atlantic and Mediterranean combat areas.

Determined to follow a theatrical career, Cliff studied at the Actors Studio here, earning his way as a bus boy, waiter, stevedore, and taxi driver. His first professional success was with an acting group that toured the Catskills Mountain resorts. His pay: $5 a week and room and board.

A TIMID LITTLE MAN, attending an important night baseball game with office cronies, announced that he had to go home with the score deadlocked at the end of thirteen exciting innings.

"I have to explain to my wife," he said sadly. "Explaining what?" asked one crony. "How do I know?" shrugged the timid little man. "I'm not home yet."

Critic John Chapman, waxing nostalgic, harks back to the wondrous Music Box Revue, unveiled by Producer Sam Harris in 1921, with a score by Irving Berlin, and a wondrous cast that included William Clark, Florence Moore, Clark and McCullough, Miriam Hopkins, Ivy Sawyer, Wilda Bennett, Joe Santley, and Sam Bernard. That was the show that introduced "Say It With Music" and "Everybody Step" and where Sam Bernard signed, "I remember when a man couldn't LIFT a dollar's worth of corned beef and cabbage!"

The public relations man at Tokyo's late lamented Imperial Hotel sounded like a natural for politics when asked if it was true that the hotel designed so perfectly by Frank Lloyd Wright was ticketed for the demolition squad. The P.R. man answered, "We are not yet at the stage of announcement—only at the stage of denial."

Bev Carney Selected Betty Crocker Winner

Beverly Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Carney, 565 Edgewood Drive, was recently named 1968 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

BEV CARNEY

Beverly won the title by placing first in a written examination given to all CHS senior girls Dec. 5.

Beverly's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarship awards and also has earned her a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow program.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from this state, together with those from all other states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join in an expense paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va. and Washington D. C. next spring.

The national winner — The 1968 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow — will be announced at a dinner in Minneapolis, Minn., home of General Mills, Inc. She will be chosen from state Homemakers of Tomorrow on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth ranking national winners will have their original scholarship grants increased to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 respectively.

This is the 14th year of the Betty Crocker Search, initiated in 1954-55 by General Mills to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. Approximately six million senior girls have participated in the Search program since its inception, and 1,358 winners will have earned scholarships totaling $1,481,500 at the conclusion of the current program.

The 603-798 girls schools registering for the 1968 Search established a new record for the program.

Bob Veith Scheduled To Speak

BOB VEITH

Bob Veith, veteran of 20 years of automobile racing and an all-time competitor at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, will speak to students of CHS Feb. 9.

Veith is one of a team of ten drivers who have presented the award-winning Champion Highway Safety Program to more than ten million teenagers in the last 13 years.

His subject, "Highway Safety Is No Accident," is one of great importance and interest to teenagers who are taking driver education courses or who are involved in traffic as they drive to and from school.

Veith will comment on controlled speed on the race track is against its opposite on the highway and will show a 15-minute color and sound movie made at Indianapolis especially for his program.

In 1964 the coveted Alfred P. Sloan Jr. Award was presented to Champion Spark Plug Company of Toledo for developing and maintaining the program. The National Safety Council has recognized the presentation three times with its public Service Award.

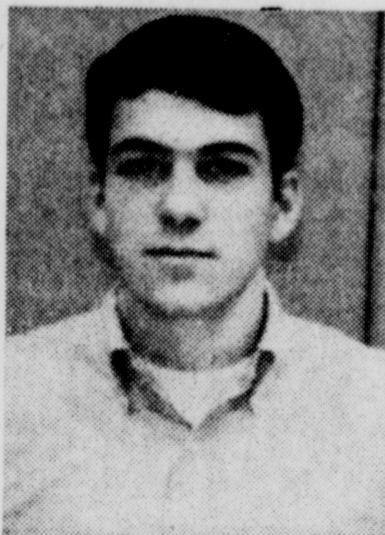

The assembly for juniors and seniors will begin at 9:15 a.m. Sophomores will attend beginning at 10 a.m.

Brock Bell has been chosen as this week's featured wrestler. Brock has wrestled for two years and tip the scales at 138 lbs. He is a member of the Key Club and attends the Lutheran Church.

He resides at 581 N. Court St. with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bell.

Besides being an enthusiastic wrestler, he is also considered an excellent golfer.

When asked his opinion of the wrestling team he said, "We have a strong team although our record lacks a little. We have several good wrestlers that could go all the way in the state tournament."

After graduation Brock plans to attend Ohio University.

making appropriate favors for each table. Beezlie Anderson is senior chairman and Cathy Frazier is junior chairman. Judy Moore and Betsy Hamrick are on the committee.

Dance programs committee is headed by senior chairman, Patty Robinson and junior chairman, Nancy Benzenberg. Patty Schleich and Judy Collins are also on the committee.

Melissa Matz is senior chairman and Bev Thompson, junior chairman, for the refreshments. Workers include Glenna Williams, Kathy Sanscrainte and Linda Merriman.

Collecting tables and chairs is no easy task. This committee, which also decorates the tables, is headed by Sue Barnhill, assisted by Valerie Valentine. Finally, but very important is the tickets committee. Connie Bowers and Debbie Dick have this responsibility. These tickets may be obtained from any SOS Club member.

Individual Rights Imply Certain Responsibilities

By DARYL BROWN

Currently across our land there is unrest, dissatisfaction, and plenty of criticism being voiced by students, whether they are high school or college, on almost every subject worth discussing and a few that are not.

Those students organize demonstrations, conduct sit-ins and ever initiate riots with the assumed purpose of proclaiming their cause. Often, however, the situation has degenerated into nothing more than a desire to strike back at anyone or any thing in order that their frustration at having their desires thwarted. Yet whenever they are ever slightly rebuked for their actions, they immediately begin claiming about their rights.

All of us, as citizens of the United States have certain inalienable rights and far be it from anyone to suggest that even one citizen be denied those rights. But it is time that we all realize that we also have certain responsibilities. John D. Rockefeller Jr., said, "I believe every right implies a responsibility . . ." In any orderly society the individual has certain responsibilities that must be performed if his society is to continue to prosper.

Those who attempt withdrawal from society because they do not like the way a situation is being handled will find that eventually they will lose their rights to withdraw and dissent. For it is that orderly society in which each person has a function that has given him the rights he so loosely uses. Those who want freedom from responsibility will themselves be responsible for losing their freedom.

Bev Carney Selected Betty Crocker Winner

Beverly Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Carney, 565 Edgewood Drive, was recently named 1968 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

BEV CARNEY
Beverly won the title by placing first in a written examination given to all CHS senior girls Dec. 5.
Beverly's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarship awards and also has earned her a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow program.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from this state, together with those from all other states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join in an expense paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va. and Washington D. C. next spring.

The national winner — The 1968 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow — will be announced at a dinner in Minneapolis, Minn., home of General Mills, Inc. She will be chosen from state Homemakers of Tomorrow on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth ranking national winners will have their original scholarship grants increased to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 respectively.

This is the 14th year of the Betty Crocker Search, initiated in 1954-55 by General Mills to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. Approximately six million senior girls have participated in the Search program since its inception, and 1,358 winners will have earned scholarships totaling $1,481,500 at the conclusion of the current program.

The 603-798 girls schools registering for the 1968 Search established a new record for the program.

Students of the Week

KELLY BARTHELMAS and DEBBIE MOORE

By DEBBIE STONEROCK and MIKE SMITH
Chosen as girl student of the week is Debbie Moore. She resides in Knollwood Village with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore and her twin brother Doug.
Her many activities include secretary of EMS, Curtin Callers, assistant secretary in band, 4-H and MYF, Painting, writing, diving and horseback riding are her hobbies.
When asked her reaction about being chosen student of the week she replied, "I just couldn't believe it. I really feel honored." Her future plans include going to college. She also hopes to travel in Europe.

The male half of the students of this week is Kelly Barthelmas. Kelly lives on Sharon Road with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Barthelmas and his two brothers Brian and Scott.
Enrolled in the college prep course the 16-year-old sophomore has many activities. He attends the Trinity Lutheran Church, is a member of the Stooze Club and is the lead singer for the "Cellar Dwellers," a local band. In school his favorite subject is Latin.
Kelly, who had hoped to go out for either basketball or wrestling, was unable to when he became ill and his doctor would not let him. Kelly still plans to try out for the baseball team this spring. After graduation Kelly plans to attend college.

Brock Bell Featured CHS Wrestler

BROCK BELL
By CONNIE COLEMAN and JONNIE THOMAS

Brock Bell has been chosen as this week's featured wrestler. Brock has wrestled for two years and tip the scales at 138 lbs. He is a member of the Key Club and attends the Lutheran Church.

He resides at 581 N. Court St. with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bell.

Besides being an enthusiastic wrestler, he is also considered an excellent golfer.

When asked his opinion of the wrestling team he said, "We have a strong team although our record lacks a little. We have several good wrestlers that could go all the way in the state tournament."

After graduation Brock plans to attend Ohio University.

Bob Veith Scheduled To Speak

BOB VEITH

Bob Veith, veteran of 20 years of automobile racing and an all-time competitor at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, will speak to students of CHS Feb. 9.

Veith is one of a team of ten drivers who have presented the award-winning Champion Highway Safety Program to more than ten million teenagers in the last 13 years.

His subject, "Highway Safety Is No Accident," is one of great importance and interest to teenagers who are taking driver education courses or who are involved in traffic as they drive to and from school.

Veith will comment on controlled speed on the race track is against its opposite on the highway and will show a 15-minute color and sound movie made at Indianapolis especially for his program.

In 1964 the coveted Alfred P. Sloan Jr. Award was presented to Champion Spark Plug Company of Toledo for developing and maintaining the program. The National Safety Council has recognized the presentation three times with its public Service Award.

The assembly for juniors and seniors will begin at 9:15 a.m. Sophomores will attend beginning at 10 a.m.

Refresher Course Nurses Honored with Luncheon

A graduation luncheon was held Tuesday at Wardell's Party Home for the 10 members of the Registered Nurse Refresher Course and their instructors.

Those who received certificates of merit from Berger Hospital for meeting the requirements of the 175 hour course were A. J. Fraas, Rita Smith, Louise Hinton, Maribel Mace, Sara Thomas, Irma Fenstermaker, Barbara Henn, Geneva Archer, Eileen Foster, and Jean Crist.

Director of the course, Miss Margaret Goode, RN, gave certificates of commendation to instructors Elaine Bowman, RN, Norma Gulick, RN, Marjorie Jones, RN, Susan Neal, RN, and Beatrice Oliver, RN. Miss Goode also expressed her appreciation to Martha Hyer, RN of the Capitol School of Nursing, who assisted her in preparing the course and gave several lectures.

Members of the graduating class gave Miss Goode a gift and expressed their deep appreciation for the time and effort she gave to give them such a complete and inclusive course.

Also attending the luncheon were Anna Mankey LPN, Margaret Dresbach, GN and Rosemary Harris, RN, who were present for many of the lectures, and Mrs. Ruth Goode, who provided refreshments for the group at every evening meeting.

Members of the refresher group expressed a desire to acknowledge the many persons who contributed their time and talents to make this course possible. The enthusiasm and willingness with which the participants took part, is a credit to the medical profession and to the community.

Local physicians who volunteered for lecture and discussion classes include the following: Carlos B. Alvarez, F. W.

Auxiliary Unit Holds Meeting In Post Home

Mrs. Orin Dreisbach, chaplain, opened the Monday evening meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 134, with prayer.

The meeting, held in the Post Home, was presided over by Mrs. Lucille Pickle, first vice president. Mrs. Martha La Grow and Mrs. Donna Hall presented reports.

Mrs. Bess Simison, rehabilitation chairman, reported on the monthly visit of the group to Ward 211-C at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Chillicothe.

Miss Maggie Mavis, cards and flowers chairman, gave her monthly report.

Members voted to dedicate their Poppy Scrapbook as a memorial to Mary H. Hedges.

The local unit will host a Roundtown Meeting, Feb. 18, for all Auxiliary Units in the State.

GOP Women Hold First Meet of Year

Pickaway County Women's Republican Club observed its first meeting of 1968 with a carry-in luncheon Monday, in the EUB Church Service Center in Circleville.

Table decorations included miniature elephants from many lands, bells to ring in the year and candles to light the way. Foods of special interest were brought by members. A New York State flat apple pie was made from the recipe of Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller. From Louisiana, a favorite recipe from the Governor's mansion, sweet potatoes with pippons, was prepared by Mrs. C. L. Costlow.

The afternoon session was opened by giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. "America" was sung by the group, accompanied by Mrs. H.E. Louis. Prayer was presented by Mrs. Merton Tootle.

Mrs. H. O. Caldwell presided as plans for membership drives were established for the various communities represented in the club. The subject of redistricting for Pickaway County was discussed.

In closing the afternoon activities, the group heard Mrs. M. D. Lorentz read excerpts from the Nation's Business Magazine.

Plans were made for the Feb. 26 meeting to be held at the EUB Church Service Center.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clark Smith, Miss Lucille Blake, Mrs. Lawrence Graham and Lawrence Liston.

Freddie Mavis Feted with Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Lemley and Deborah Jo, honored Freddie Mavis on his eleventh birthday Wednesday evening in their home on Dunkel Road.

Pink and blue were the colors used in the decorating theme throughout the home. Each child was presented a gaily decorated birthday hat.

A buffet lunch was served from a decorated table centered with the cake. Guests roasted weiners in the large, open fireplace.

Games were played with prizes won by Mark Bower and Rob Gans.

Present for the occasion were Fred K. Mavis Sr., Mark Bower, Scott Jones, Bobby Reagan, Rob Gans, Teresa Norris, Charles Norris, Rickey Norris, Maggie E. Mavis, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Norris, Mrs. Norris assisted Mrs. Lemley.

Gifts were sent by Brad Jones and Freddie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bower.

DEAR FOUR: That depends on their frames.
DEAR ABBY: I have been drawing social security for two years now, and my wife will be eligible for hers in the near future. My problem is she doesn't want to accept hers. She says the government is billions of dollars in debt and they need the money worse than she does. It is true, we could live without her social security, but it would come in handy, and since she is entitled to it, I can't see any reason why she doesn't take it. How can I persuade her to take it?

DEAR ABBY: If this letter makes sense, it will be a miracle because right now I am so nervous I can hardly think. Yesterday I came home and found my 15-year-old son putting on my make-up! He had lipstick on his lips, eye shadow on his lids, and he was putting on mascara. He acted embarrassed when he saw me, but he didn't run and hide. All he said was, "I just wanted to see how I'd look."

DEAR ABBY: No. If George can fell two birds (chicks, that is) with one stone, there's no harm done. (P.S. Keep your eye on that "good friend" of George's who thought you were "a dope" — just to make sure she doesn't take you for one.)

DEAR ABBY: This boy could be normal, too, and is only passing thru a stage. Talk to your family physician. He may suggest that you take your son to a psychiatrist for evaluation. Most important, don't make the boy feel freakish or guilty. And DO tell the boy's father. If it didn't kill you, it won't kill him.

Refresher Course Nurses Honored with Luncheon

A graduation luncheon was held Tuesday at Wardell's Party Home for the 10 members of the Registered Nurse Refresher Course and their instructors.

Those who received certificates of merit from Berger Hospital for meeting the requirements of the 175 hour course were A. J. Fraas, Rita Smith, Louise Hinton, Maribel Mace, Sara Thomas, Irma Fenstermaker, Barbara Henn, Geneva Archer, Eileen Foster, and Jean Crist.

Director of the course, Miss Margaret Goode, RN, gave certificates of commendation to instructors Elaine Bowman, RN, Norma Gulick, RN, Marjorie Jones, RN, Susan Neal, RN, and Beatrice Oliver, RN. Miss Goode also expressed her appreciation to Martha Hyer, RN of the Capitol School of Nursing, who assisted her in preparing the course and gave several lectures.

Members of the graduating class gave Miss Goode a gift and expressed their deep appreciation for the time and effort she gave to give them such a complete and inclusive course.

Also attending the luncheon were Anna Mankey LPN, Margaret Dresbach, GN and Rosemary Harris, RN, who were present for many of the lectures, and Mrs. Ruth Goode, who provided refreshments for the group at every evening meeting.

Members of the refresher group expressed a desire to acknowledge the many persons who contributed their time and talents to make this course possible. The enthusiasm and willingness with which the participants took part, is a credit to the medical profession and to the community.

Local physicians who volunteered for lecture and discussion classes include the following: Carlos B. Alvarez, F. W.

Anderson, J. M. Hedges, Robert McCoy, E. L. Montgomery, William A. Myers, Julio Sanguly, Manuel Sanguly, H. H. Swope and Robert G. Smith.

James Stambaugh, administrator of Berger Hospital, gave valuable assistance throughout the course, along with many members of the staff at Berger Hospital. Some members of the staff who gave lectures on their particular specialties were: Robert Craig, nurse anesthetist; Robert McKelvey, pharmacist; Diane Berger, physical therapist; Carolyn McCoy, dietitian; Susan Neal, RN, obstetrical nursing, and Charlotte Christy, RN emergency room nursing.

Speakers from Columbus included Evelyn Barrett, RN, dean of the Capital University School of Nursing; John McCormick, dean of the Capital University Law School; Mary Kline, RN, assistant professor at Capital University; Louanne Irion, RN, assistant professor Capital University; Lee Mourad, RN, assistant professor at Ohio State University; John Buchan, podiatrist, associated with the diabetic clinic at Ohio State University; and Robert Bert, sales representative for The Baxter Company.

Auxiliary Unit Holds Meeting In Post Home

Mrs. Orin Dreisbach, chaplain, opened the Monday evening meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 134, with prayer.

The meeting, held in the Post Home, was presided over by Mrs. Lucille Pickle, first vice president. Mrs. Martha La Grow and Mrs. Donna Hall presented reports.

Mrs. Bess Simison, rehabilitation chairman, reported on the monthly visit of the group to Ward 211-C at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Chillicothe.

Miss Maggie Mavis, cards and flowers chairman, gave her monthly report.

Members voted to dedicate their Poppy Scrapbook as a memorial to Mary H. Hedges.

The local unit will host a Roundtown Meeting, Feb. 18, for all Auxiliary Units in the State.

FOE Auxiliary Slates Session
Fraternal Order of Eagles Auxiliary 685, will hold a regular session 8 p. m. Thursday in the basement of the Aerie Home on E. Main St.

GOP Women Hold First Meet of Year

Pickaway County Women's Republican Club observed its first meeting of 1968 with a carry-in luncheon Monday, in the EUB Church Service Center in Circleville.

Table decorations included miniature elephants from many lands, bells to ring in the year and candles to light the way. Foods of special interest were brought by members. A New York State flat apple pie was made from the recipe of Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller. From Louisiana, a favorite recipe from the Governor's mansion, sweet potatoes with pippins, was prepared by Mrs. C. L. Costlow.

The afternoon session was opened by giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. "America" was sung by the group, accompanied by Mrs. H.E. Louis. Prayer was presented by Mrs. Merton Tootle.

Mrs. H. O. Caldwell presided as plans for membership drives were established for the various communities represented in the club. The subject of re-districting for Pickaway County was discussed.

In closing the afternoon activities, the group heard Mrs. M. D. Lorentz read excerpts from the Nation's Business Magazine.

Plans were made for the Feb. 26 meeting to be held at the EUB Church Service Center.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clark Smith, Miss Lucille Blake, Mrs. Lawrence Graham and Lawrence Liston.

Freddie Mavis Feted with Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Lemley and Deborah Jo, honored Freddie K. Mavis on his eleventh birthday Wednesday evening in their home on Dunkel Road.

Pink and blue were the colors used in the decorating theme throughout the home. Each child was presented a gaily decorated birthday hat.

A buffet lunch was served from a decorated table centered with the cake. Guests roasted weiners in the large, open fireplace.

Games were played with prizes won by Mark Bower and Rob Gaus.

Present for the occasion were Fred K. Mavis Sr., Mark Bower, Scott Jones, Bobby Reagan, Rob Gaus, Teresa Norris, Charles Norris, Rickey Norris, Maggie E. Mavis, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Norris, Mrs. Norris assisted Mrs. Lemley.

Gifts were sent by Brad Jones and Freddie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bower.

St. Joseph's School Mothers Plan Meet

Mother's Club of St. Joseph's School will meet 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the church basement. Plans will be made for a card party scheduled for February.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Sometimes Better 2nd Time

DEAR ABBY: Am I a dope attractive as girls without to accept an engagement ring from a guy who admitted it was the same diamond he gave a girl three years ago I didn't ask him any questions because I never knew him when he was engaged to her and I figured it wasn't any of my business. Right.

Well, a very good friend of George's said she thought I was a dope for accepting a second-hand engagement ring, but Abby, he had the diamond reset, so it's not like it was the same ring. Do you think I was a

ENGAGED

DEAR ENGAGED: No. If George can fell two birds (chicks, that is) with one stone, there's no harm done. (P.S. Keep your eye on that "good friend" of George's who thought you were "a dope" — just to make sure she doesn't take you for one.)

DEAR ABBY: If this letter makes sense, it will be a miracle because right now I am so nervous I can hardly think. Yesterday I came home and found my 15-year-old son putting on my make-up! He had lipstick on his lips, eye shadow on his lids, and he was putting on mascara. He acted embarrassed when he saw me, but he didn't run and hide. All he said was, "I just wanted to see how I'd look."

He was wearing his regular clothes, but he had his shoes and socks off, and later I found my high-heeled slippers under his bed. I can't understand things like this, Abby. What does it would kill him for sure. I other children and they are normal. I can't tell my husband. It would kill him for sure. I am worried sick and don't know what to do.

DESPERATE MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: This boy could be normal, too, and is only passing thru a stage. Talk to your family physician. He may suggest that you take your son to a psychiatrist for evaluation. Most important, don't make the boy feel freakish or guilty. And DO tell the boy's father. If it didn't kill you, it won't kill him.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think girls with glasses can be as FOUR EYES on their frames.

DEAR FOUR: That depends on their frames.

DEAR ABBY: I have been drawing social security for two years now, and my wife will be eligible for hers in the near future. My problem is she doesn't want to accept hers. She says the government is billions of dollars in debt and they need the money worse than she does. It is true, we could live without her social security, but it would come in handy, and since she is entitled to it, I can't see any reason why she doesn't take it. How can I persuade her to take it?

SOCIALLY SECURE

DEAR SECURE: She is certainly entitled to it since it is THE "kitty" into which both she and her employer have been contributing for many years. Tell her to give it to charity if she doesn't want to keep it.

Prices Going Up? Yes!

(But Not Yet)

It's a known fact that housing prices will be HIGHER in the Spring of 1968 — just a few months away. In anticipation of this increase, the Tectonics Construction Co., builders of Logan Elm Village, have started 10 new homes. These new homes will be at the current, low price.

If a new home is in your plans, it certainly would pay you to investigate Logan Elm Village now before prices go up. From now till February 1, 1968 these homes will be ready for sale and occupancy.

Lausche Set To Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche said Wednesday he will not be chased out of the race for renomination by members of his own party.

"No gang of 44 men is going to drive me out of this fight," the 72-year-old, silver-haired lawmaker charged, commenting on the Ohio Democratic Executive Committee's refusal to endorse him.

"I will win the primary and I will win by a tremendous number. I will run, run, run," Lausche said during a news conference after speaking to the Ohio Highway and Turnpike Association.

The executive committee two weeks ago endorsed Cincinnati City Councilman John J. Gilligan as the party's candidate for the U.S. Senate in the May primary.

Grain Elevator Leveled by Fire

LAKEVIEW, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Farmers Grain Association building along Ohio 69 at the south edge of this Logan County community, two trucks and a large amount of stored grain were destroyed in a fire Thursday morning.

A portion of the association's office also was destroyed.

There was no immediate estimate of the loss, but it is expected to exceed $20,000. Cause of the fire has not been determined.

View from your Window

What do you see from your window? Another house across the street? A wheat field? A pine forest? A placidly flowing river, or an endlessly crashing sea? Your view, of course, depends on where you live.

The kind of church you go to—whether it is Gothic in style or white frame, a pale pink stucco built in a Spanish manner, or a domed cathedral, depends, too, upon where you live.

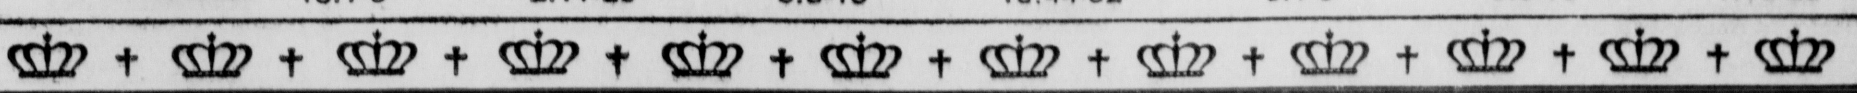

But whatever the size . . . whatever the shape . . . the Church is the Church. God's House assumes many forms on earth, but in all of them you will find His teachings, His word, His spirit.

Go to your church next Sunday.

Lausche Set To Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche said Wednesday he will not be chased out of the race for renomination by members of his own party.
"No gang of 44 men is going to drive me out of this fight," the 72-year-old, silver-haired lawmaker charged, commenting on the Ohio Democratic Executive Committee's refusal to endorse him.

"I will win the primary and I will win by a tremendous number. I will run, run, run," Lausche said during a news conference after speaking to the Ohio Highway and Turnpike Association.

The executive committee two weeks ago endorsed Cincinnati City councilman John J. Gilligan as the party's candidate for the U.S. Senate in the May primary.

Grain Elevator Leveled by Fire

LAKEVIEW, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Farmers Grain Association building along Ohio 69 at the south edge of this Logan County community, two trucks and a large amount of stored grain were destroyed in a fire Thursday morning.

A portion of the association's office also was destroyed. There was no immediate estimate of the loss, but it is expected to exceed $20,000. Cause of the fire has not been determined.

View from your Window

What do you see from your window? Another house across the street? A wheat field? A pine forest? A placidly flowing river, or an endlessly crashing sea? Your view, of course, depends on where you live.

The kind of church you go to—whether it is Gothic in style or white frame, a pale pink stucco built in a Spanish manner, or a domed cathedral, depends, too, upon where you live.

But whatever the size... whatever the shape... the Church is the Church. God's House assumes many forms on earth, but in all of them you will find His teachings, His word, His spirit.

Go to your church next Sunday.

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's basketball Buckeyes tangle with Michigan Saturday in what could be an "instant replay" of their one-sided encounter last week.

The Bucks trounced the inept Wolverines 103-70, but this time the regionally televised matinee affair is at Ann Arbor.

Buckeye Coach Fred Taylor has the tough task of convincing his charges that Michigan could be formidable. Any mistakes at this point could cost the Bucks dearly since the key to the Big Ten title is winning on the road.

Ohio, 2-1 in the league and 9-3 over-all, has to be rated a genuine contender for the crown.

But Michigan, 0-3 in the conference and 5-8 on the season, could be especially mean with home town support.

The Bucks should again control the boards with Bill Hosket, Steve Howell and Dave Sorenson up front. Hosket leads the attack with a 21.7 average. Howell is shooting at an 18.3 clip and Sorenson boats a 16.5 mark.

The game is the feature of Ohio's collegiate cage program this weekend that also headlines three Mid-American Conference contests.

Bowling Green, 4-1, needs a

Minnesota Tops N.J., 137-103

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Minnesota tuned up for its battle for first place with an easy victory, and New Orleans better start tuning up tonight before it finds itself in the same position.

Minnesota lengthened its Eastern Division lead in the American Basketball Association to one game by dismantling visiting New Jersey 137-103 Thursday night, and set up its clash against runner-up Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh tonight.

But New Orleans dropped a 102-101 squeaker at home to Dallas, pulling the third-place Chaparrals within three games of the Western lead.

Now the Buccaneers must face second-place Denver at New Orleans tonight with only a 2½-game lead.

In the only other game Thursday night, Anaheim pelted Oakland 124-115.

Bob Dickson Eyes PGA Circuit

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — U.S. and British Amateur golf champion Bob Dickson chose his 24th birthday Thursday to announce his intention to become a professional.

At a birthday party Thursday night Dickson said, "I'm declaring myself a golf professional and my intention is to enter the PGA school in April. After that, if I qualify, I will make the PGA Tour."

4 Cage Pioneers Named to Hall

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Four basketball pioneers—coaches Clair Bee, Howard Cann, Amory "Slats" Gill and Alvin "Doggie" Julian—have been named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Bee spent most of his coaching career at Long Island University and Cann, now retired, coached at New York University for 35 years.

Gill, who was the Oregon State coach for 36 years, died in 1966 and Julian, who piloted Holy Cross, Dartmouth and the Boston Celtics during a 41-year coaching career, died last July.

Orlando Cepeda Gets $90,000 Pact

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Orlando Cepeda said it took him 10 minutes to get his, though Bob Gibson won't even begin to guess how long it will take him to agree on a salary with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The big first baseman was in St. Louis for a baseball writers dinner Thursday. So the trip wouldn't be a complete waste, Cepeda dropped by the Cardinal offices and signed for an estimated $90,000.

Namath To Wear Cast on Knee

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterback Joe Namath of the New York Jets will be wearing a cast on his troublesome left knee for the next three to four weeks.

The injury-plagued American Football League star had the cast put on in an effort to correct a small tear in the tendon.

Viking Frosh Top Braves In 56-18 Tilt

Teays Valley freshmen maintained their undefeated streak Thursday, defeating Logan Elm, 56-18, in a basketball game played at Salter Creek School.

With his team jumping out to 13-3 first quarter lead, Viking Coach Dan Evans began substituting in the second quarter. The score at halftime was 25-8 and at the end of the third quarter it was 39-11.

With the exception of Don Neff, the game's leading scorer with 20 points, none of the starting five for Teays Valley played two complete quarters.

All of Neff's points came in the second half. He was the leading rebounder for Teays Valley with 12. Tim Speakman and Dountz were Logan Elm's top scorers with six each.

Teays Valley has an 11-0 overall record and is 5-0 in the South Suburban freshman league. The little Vikings travel to Hamilton Twp. Thursday for a league game.

Stars Beat Flyers, 3-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Goalie Cesare Maniago is Minnesota's Mr. Clean, but teammate Ray Cullen has been doing a pretty fair mop-up job at the other end of the ice.

Maniago grabbed the National Hockey League shutout lead Thursday night with his fifth whitewash of the season and Cullen scored twice to become the West Division's top goal-producer as the North Stars trimmed the first-place Philadelphia Flyers 3-0.

The tall Minnesota goalender's fifth shutout sent him one ahead of Montreal veteran Gump Worsley, who nursed a pulled leg muscle while alternate Rogation Vachon blanked Boston's East Division leaders 2-0. Detroit rallied for three goals in the last 8½ minutes and tied St. Louis 4-4 in the only other game scheduled.

George McDonald Leads Keglers

DENVER (AP) — George McDonald of Denver led 15 other semifinalists into Friday's match game play of the Professional Bowlers' Association $40,000 Denver Open.

The 33-year-old McDonald, who led by 118 pins going into Friday night's action, shot 1,406 in his six games for a 24-game total of 5,509. This was 147 pins better than Don Johnson of Kokomo, Ind.

Wichita State Shakeups Continues

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Don Shoemaker is the fifth Wichita State football coach to resign, along with the athletic director, in the current shake-up.

The former head coach, Boyd Converse, resigned Monday.

"I came here with Boyd," said Shoemaker, 31, who played at Kirksville, Mo., State, "and I'm going to leave with him."

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — Two Colorado University coeds have served warning to other skiers in the World Student Games after giving the United States its first gold and silver medals with a 1-2 finish Thursday in the giant slalom.

Cathy Nagel, 19, of Enumac, Wash., and Vicki Jones of Tahoe City, Calif., hoping only to finish in the top five, conquered the ice-coated course despite the falling snow that cut visibility to 50 yards.

Boston Defeats LeMoyne On Way to UCLA Game

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
There was a mystery college basketball game Thursday night. Boston College beat LeMoyne, N.Y., 90-61 at Syracuse.

When the score came in there was a scurrying around in some sports departments. Boston College, slated to meet mighty UCLA in New York Saturday night, did not have any game with LeMoyne listed in its pre-season schedule. Neither did LeMoyne's list any Jan. 25 game with BC.

It developed that the game was arranged after the original schedules had been published. It provided a nice warmup for the Bob Cousy-coached Eagles before their confrontation with UCLA and famed Lew Alcindor.

A sellout crowd of 2,200 at the LeMoyne Athletic Center saw Steve Adelman, with 18, and

Terry Driscoll, with 17, combine for 35 points in leading the Eagles to their ninth victory in 13 starts.

The unbeaten Brown Indians of St. Bonaventure, fifth-ranked in The Associated Press poll, made it 15 in a row by defeating St. Francis of Pennsylvania 74-58 at Olean, N.Y. Sophomore

Bob Lanier led the Bonnies with 23 points and 23 rebounds.

No other team in the AP Top Ten saw action as the midyear exam lull continued to keep many teams idle.

Bill Schutsky's 37 points paced Army to a 75-69 victory over Manhattan for the sixth in a row for the West Points Cadets. Rich Travis got 35 points in leading Oklahoma City to a 92-90 overtime conquest of Arkansas.

In other home court triumphs, Iowa State downed Oklahoma 80-70. Jacksonville edged Citadel 63-59. Fordham beat Rutgers 67-50. Kent State vanquished Tulane 93-73 and Seattle defeated Montana State 92-82.

On the road, Providence whipped Massachusetts 83-77. Connecticut beat Vermont 85-59 and Bradley humbled Memphis State 92-69.

Big Ohio College Schedule Set

By IAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's basketball Buckeyes tangle with Michigan Saturday in what could be an "instant replay" of their one-sided encounter last week.

The Bucks trounced the incoherent Wolverines 103-70, but this time the regionally televised matinee affair is at Ann Arbor.

Buckeye Coach Fred Taylor has the tough task of convincing his charges that Michigan could be formidable. Any mistakes at this point could cost the Bucks dearly since the key to the Big Ten title is winning on the road.

Ohio, 2-1 in the league and 9-3 overall, has to be rated a genuine contender for the crown.

But Michigan, 0-3 in the conference and 5-8 on the season, could be especially mean with home town support.

The Bucks should again control the boards with Bill Hosket, Steve Howell and Dave Sorenson up front. Hosket leads the attack with a 21.7 average. Howell is shooting at an 18.3 clip and Sorenson boats a 16.5 mark.

The game is the feature of Ohio's collegiate cage program this weekend that also headlines three Mid-American Conference contests.

Bowling Green, 4-1, needs a victory over dangerous Miami, 1-4, at Oxford to break out of a three-way logjam for first place.

Western Michigan, one of the other co-leaders, challenges Marshall, 4-2, at Huntington, W. Va., while Toledo, 4-1, is idle. Kent State, 1-4, entertains Ohio University, 0-5.

In a top Missouri Valley Conference skirmish, Cincinnati, 5-1, needs a victory over rugged St. Louis on the road to retain first place.

Otterbein, 5-0, risks its top spot in the Ohio Conference with a game at Mount Union, 1-5.

Once-beaten Ashland, 13-1, visits Wittenberg, 7-9, in a match pitting two defensive-minded clubs.

The others:

Ohio Wesleyan at Baldwin Wallace; Kenyon at Marietta;

Findlay at Wilmington; Loyola South at Xavier; Berea at Rio Grande; Capital at Ohio Northern; Chicago at Oberlin; Akron at Hiram; Wooster at Hope; Eastern Michigan at Youngstown; Indiana Tech at Central State; Steubenville at Bellarmine; Urbana at Michigan Christian; John Carroll at Bethany; Franklin, Ind., at Cedarville; Walsh at Point Park, Pa.; Alliance (Pa.) at Cleveland State; Defiance at Heidelberg and the Malone Invitational Tournament.

Ohio Cage Action Light

Toledo fired one of its biggest scoring thrusters of the season Thursday night in crushing St. Joseph of Indiana 102-73. Six Rockets scored in double figures.

St. Joseph's Ted Hillary collapsed after the game and was hospitalized with a possible concussion. He was in fair condition in Toledo Hospital this morning.

Hillary apparently was bumped as he went up for a rebound with six seconds remaining. He finished the game and collapsed in the dressing room.

Steve Mix and John Brisker led the Toledo assault with 17 points each. Doug Hess and Bob Miller had 16 each, Larry Smith got 15 and John Rudley 11.

In the only other Ohio games, Kent State routed Tulane 93-73 and Pittsburgh clipped Baldwin-Wallace 83-76.

Like Toledo, Kent State zoomed out front in the first half, leaving little doubt about the outcome. Tom Lagodich paced the Golden Flashes with 26 points followed by Doug Grayson with 15.

Teays Valley freshmen maintained their undefeated skien Thursday, defeating Logan Elm, 56-18, in a basketball game played at Salter Creek School.

With his team jumping out to 13-3 first quarter lead, Viking Coach Dan Evans began substituting in the second quarter. The score at halftime was 25-8 and at the end of the third quarter it was 39-11.

With the exception of Don Neff, the game's leading scorer with 20 points, none of the starting five for Teays Valley played two complete quarters.

All of Neff's points came in the second half. He was the leading rebounder for Teays Valley with 12. Tim Speakman and Dountz were Logan Elm's top scorers with six each.

Teays Valley has an 11-0 overall record and is 5-0 in the South Suburban freshman league. The little Vikings travel to Hamilton Twp. Thursday for a league game.

Stars Beat Flyers, 3-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Goalie Cesare Maniago is Minnesota's Mr. Clean, but teammate Ray Cullen has been doing a pretty fair mop-up job at the other end of the ice.

Maniago grabbed the National Hockey League shutout lead Thursday night with his fifth whitewash of the season and Cullen scored twice to become the West Division's top goal-producer as the North Stars trimmed the first-place Philadelphia Flyers 3-0.

The tall Minnesota goalender's fifth shutout sent him one ahead of Montreal veteran Gump Worsley, who nursed a pulled leg muscle while alternate Rogation Vachon blanked Boston's East Division leaders 2-0. Detroit rallied for three goals in the last 8½ minutes and tied St. Louis 4-4 in the only other game scheduled.

George McDonald Leads Keglers

DENVER (AP) — George McDonald of Denver led 15 other semifinalists into Friday's match game play of the Professional Bowlers' Association $40,000 Denver Open.

The 33-year-old McDonald, who led by 118 pins going into Friday night's action, shot 1,406 in his six games for a 24-game total of 5,509. This was 147 pins better than Don Johnson of Kokomo, Ind.

Wichita State Shakeups Continues

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Don Shoemaker is the fifth Wichita State football coach to resign, along with the athletic director, in the current shake-up.

The former head coach, Boyd Converse, resigned Monday.

"I came here with Boyd," said Shoemaker, 31, who played at Kirksville, Mo., State, "and I'm going to leave with him."

2 Coeds Win Medals for U.S.

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — Two Colorado University coeds have served warning to other skiers in the World Student Games after giving the United States its first gold and silver medals with a 1-2 finish Thursday in the giant slalom.

Cathy Nagel, 19, of Enumac, Wash., and Vicki Jones of Tahoe City, Calif., hoping only to finish in the top five, conquered the ice-coated course despite the falling snow that cut visibility to 50 yards.

Boston Defeats LeMoyne On Way to UCLA Game

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
There was a mystery college basketball game Thursday night. Boston College beat LeMoyne, N.Y., 90-61 at Syracuse.

When the score came in there was a scurrying around in some sports departments. Boston College, slated to meet mighty UCLA in New York Saturday night, did not have any game with LeMoyne listed in its pre-season schedule. Neither did LeMoyne's list any Jan. 25 game with BC.

It developed that the game was arranged after the original schedules had been published. It provided a nice warmup for the Bob Cousy-coached Eagles before their confrontation with UCLA and famed Lew Alcindor.

A sellout crowd of 2,200 at the LeMoyne Athletic Center saw Steve Adelman, with 18, and

Terry Driscoll, with 17, combine for 35 points in leading the Eagles to their ninth victory in 13 starts.

The unbeaten Brown Indians of St. Bonaventure, fifth-ranked in The Associated Press poll, made it 15 in a row by defeating St. Francis of Pennsylvania 74-58 at Olean, N.Y. Sophomore

Hawks Take 105-93 Win From Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Hal Greer has picked up in the regular season where he left off in the National Basketball Association All-Star game, but not Zelmo Beaty. And that doesn't make Beaty unhappy at all.

Big Z, a flop in Tuesday's classic, looked quite a bit better Thursday night, pumping in a career high 42 points that carried the St. Louis Hawks to a 105-93 victory over Boston in Miami Beach.

Greer, voted the most valuable player in the All-Star game, continued his hot hand with 35 points and led Philadelphia to a 123-108 triumph over the slumping Detroit Pistons in Detroit.

In other games, the New York Knicks rode a long-range barrage by Cazzie Russell and Dick Barnett to a 126-118 victory over host Chicago. Elgin Baylor lifted Los Angeles past Cincinnati 118-116 in the last 10 seconds at Cleveland, and Baltimore tied San Diego 127-113 in San Diego.

Kiki Cutter Close To Skiing Win

ST. GERMAIS, France (AP) —Kiki Cutter's third place finish and solid performances by three other American girls in a pre-Olympic Games ski meet has given new impetus to U.S. medal hopes at Grenoble next month.

"I am pleased with the way the girls are coming," Coach Bob Beattie said Thursday after Miss Cutter, who wasn't originally picked as a member of the U.S. Alpine squad, narrowly missed an upset victory in the Grand Prix Slalom, won by Fernande Bochaty of Switzerland in one minute, 18.93 seconds.

4 Golfers Tie LA Open Round

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Arnold Palmer predicted that the gallery traffic on the tight Brookside Park course might prove to be quite a problem, a condition which already existed in the player ranks today in the second round of the $100,000 Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament.

No fewer than 28 professionals were crowded into the sub-par bracket, and 11 more were even with par 71 after Thursday's hectic first round over the 7,021-yard test with its nine-hole 36-35 par.

Four shooters—Gene Littler, Al Geiberger, Jimmy Clark and Dave Eichelberger—led the way with initial round 67s.

Bob Seagren Breaks Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Forget about the wide open spaces, take back the wind in your face and the sun on your back, Bob Seagren likes it better indoors.

When the 21-year-old Southern California junior broke his own indoor pole vault record by topping 17-4¼ at the Millrose Games Thursday night it was the 11th time Seagren has done it; he's the only one.

BOYER'S HARDWARE
810 S. Court

Is your water half-soft, half-hard?

Many families on the tank-exchange plan really have half-soft, half-hard water.

This may be true in your home.

Many tank exchange water softeners are connected only to hot water outlets. So, while the hot water tap delivers the benefits of soft water, the cold taps are completely hard.

This means stains under the cold water taps, stains in the tubs and toilets. It means that when you take a bath, you are bathing in half-soft, half-hard water.

Worst of all, it means that when you and your daughters shampoo, your hair is stringy, dull and hard to manage.

Wouldn't you rather have a complete soft water system in both hot and cold taps for about the same as you now pay for tank-exchange?

The remarkable new Lindsay water softener is an automatic, completely modern unit that gives you all the soft water you want, out of both taps. Fully automatic means you never turn a valve, you never change a tank, and there's never a fuss or muss. Furthermore, the Lindsay is as beautiful as any appliance in your home!

The cost? You can usually rent or buy a Lindsay water softener for less than old-fashioned tank-exchange rental costs.

Please, make us prove this statement. Write, or phone. Take the first easy step toward getting rid of half-hard water in your home.

NEW YORK (AP) — The single thing that has been troubling television executives for the past few seasons—troubling them more than bad ratings—has been the fact that people seem to have stopped talking much about television.

The viewers groan a lot and say that days go by when they don't even bother to turn on the darned set—and one suspects that they exaggerate. But television's current offerings just don't seem to bring on the violent reactions of those good old days.

But during the past week television has—somewhat unexpectedly—moved back into the mainstream of viewers' conversation.

On Monday night the premier of NBC's "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In," a midseason replacement, arrived with a pace and verve that was stimulating. It took some impudent funny sidesteps on subjects ranging from government policy and Charles de Gaulle to rock 'n' roll and pot. And the networks, which have been afflicted with a desire to please all the people all of the time, have suddenly decided that controversial material isn't all bad.

The day after the premiere show viewers talked, with delight, about seeing a really funny show.

The television debut of Lee Remick on Wednesday night also caused excited ripples on a TV lake too long placid. Her first starring vehicle drew some deadly critical shafts, but the audience turned out to see the show.

A preliminary count by A. C. Nielsen, the audience research company, found that in the New York metropolitan area alone, "Laura" had as many viewers as the other two network stations combined.

"I've been looking forward to this, playing before friends and relatives," the 7-foot 1½ All American center said at a lavishly press conference.

"No, there's nothing special about playing Holy Cross. I just want to win," he said.

Alcindor and UCLA play Holy Cross, coached by Jack Donahue, in Madison Square Garden tonight, then take on Boston College Saturday night. Donahue was Alcindor's high school coach at Power Memorial in Manhattan.

The Garden, which seats 18,499 for basketball, is sold out both nights.

"I would have liked to have come here undefeated," UCLA coach John Wooden said with a wry grin. "But Houston would not permit it."

The Bruins, now 13-1 and ranked No. 2 in the country, were upset by Houston 71-69 in the Astrodome last weekend, ending their 47 game winning string.

Alcindor suffered an eye injury two weeks ago, missed two games entirely and was subpar for the Bruins' game at Houston. He said he is "still less than 100 per cent, but improved."

NEW YORK (AP) — The single thing that has been troubling television executives for the past few seasons—troubling them more than bad ratings—has been the fact that people seem to have stopped talking about television.

The viewers groan a lot and say that days go by when they don't even bother to turn on the darned set—and one suspects that they exaggerate. But television's current offerings just don't seem to bring on the violent reactions of those good old days.

But during the past week television has—somewhat unexpectedly—moved back into the mainstream of viewers' conversation.

A preliminary count by A. C. Nielsen, the audience research company, found that in the New York metropolitan area alone, "Laura" had as many viewers as the other two network stations combined.

The only thing now to fear is that controversy and satire may suddenly become very popular and like other TV fads run its course fast. And also that offbeat casting to attract audiences will become more important than the kind of plays presented.

All three networks are now in the throes of drawing up schedules for next season.

CBS, which in the past couple of seasons has been the first to announce its plans for the next September, plans so few changes that there are really no cliffhangers.

It is likely that Doris Day's new half-hour situation comedy series will replace "Good Morning World" on Tuesday nights, and that a 90-minute whodunit action series, "Hawaii-Five-O" will take over Thursday night's "Cimarron Strip." CBS is expected to have only one other time slot left to fill, probably the half hour now occupied by "He and She" on Wednesdays.

NBC has announced "The Name of the Game" as a 90-minute action series for Friday nights next fall. "Star Trek" is now given a 50-50 chance for survival, although in a new time period if it makes it. NBC programs believed to be candidates for oblivion include "I Dream of Jeannie," "The Danny Thomas Hour" and, almost certainly, either "I Spy" or "Run for Your Life."

Recommended tonight: "Flesh and Blood," NBC, 8:30-10:30 EST, original drama by William Hanley starring Edmond O'Brien, Kim Stanley, E. G. Marshall and Suzanne Pleshette.

Negro Athletes Still Unhappy

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Negro athletes at the University of California insist that, unless their demands are met, they will quit their teams.

A joint statement said Thursday their boycott threat did not end with the return of five Negroes to basketball practice. They are seeking the firing of three white coaches and the hiring of several Negro coaches.

The Preakness middle jewel in racing's triple crown, will be run this year on May 18.

Report on City Schools

The Athletic Program

By FRITZ JACOBS,
Superintendent

The Athletic Program of the Circleville City School system is quite comprehensive.

It consists of seven sports at the High School: football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, golf, cross country.

Four at the Junior High: football, basketball, wrestling, track.

A Saturday morning elementary basketball program is also conducted.

The Athletic Program is essentially self supporting from gate receipts except that the coaches salaries are paid from the general fund.

A large number of boys are participants each year in one sport or another. Approximately 225 participants compete during a normal year.

The Athletic Program is under strict regulation of the Ohio High School Athletic Assn. An athletic council at the local level composed of the superintendent, high school principal, faculty manager, a member of the Board of Education, and the head football and head basketball coach exists as the policy making body. All other head coaches attend meetings of the athletic board.

Eligibility to participate in athletics must be earned. Some of the qualifications are as follows:

I. Age Limitations — A. Age 19 attained on or after Sept. 1 — pupil is eligible to compete through the fall sports program. B. Age 19 is attained on or after Nov. 1 — pupil is eligible to compete through the winter sports program. C. Age 19 is attained on or after March 1 — Pupil is eligible to compete through the spring sports season.

II. Academic Requirement — A. A pupil to be eligible for any sport must have passed three academic subjects the preceding semester. (Make-up work of any kind — such as tutoring or summer school — is not permitted in order to be eligible.)

III. Weekly Scholaristic Requirements — A. Pupil must have maintained from the beginning of the semester up to the end of the week preceding that in which the contest occurs passing average grades in subjects which count one and one-half

Bishop Sets Up Houses For Priests

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — A Montana bishop of the Episcopal Church is setting up houses for priests who he said have broken down under the stresses of contemporary parochial life.

The Rt. Rev. Chandler W. Sterling, 57, says 2,200 Episcopal clergymen are in this category.

The first "Nicodemus House" will open March 1 at Pelham, a New York City suburb, with the blessing of the House of Bishops but without church money. The name comes from a Biblical man who "comes quietly to the door by night with a heavy heart."

"I'm going to be swamped as soon as I start," the bishop said. He has resigned as the head of the church in Montana effective March 1.

The project is called PARADON, for Pastors Anonymous, Recovery-Directed Order for Newness.

A priest would be relieved of his pastoral duties, moved to a Nicodemus House without his family, and given temporary secular work "so he can pay his way while he battles his bag."

units per semester toward graduation. No special recitation or tests or other consideration are to be given for the purpose of making a pupil eligible B. Teachers check the above requirement each week in the High School office.

IV. Physical Examination — A. "It is required that all participants have a physical examination and that it be on file in the High School Principal's office prior to any practice sessions."

The financing of the Athletic Program results primarily from gate receipts. The annual budget approximates $12,000-$14,000.

The athletic fund now operates without deficit spending. A small contingency is carried for emergencies. Expenditures are approved in advance by an established purchase order system. Coaches submit requisitions which are approved by the high school principal before being submitted to the treasurer for ordering purposes.

The largest sum approximately 50 per cent is expended annually for equipment items. The athletic teams of Circleville City Schools are always adequately and safely equipped. The Booster Club annually supplement equipment purchases as well as providing the pre game meal in football.

Football and basketball gate receipts provide most of the income. A normal year should provide approximately $6,500 in football and $3,100 in basketball. Reserved seat sales add another $2,000. Miscellaneous receipts provide an additional $1,000.

The philosophy of the athletic program is to provide a well balanced program, to serve as many different students as possible. Additionally the aim seeks as its chief purposes friendly rivalry, new friendships, improved playing skills, better community relations, and good sportsmanship.

Officials Admit Living Cost Crisis

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs, climbing at a 10-year record pace and more than wiping out wage gains of many Americans, are causing White House concern in this election year.

For all Americans, a White House source said Thursday, the rising prices mean "you've got trouble and it's not on the horizon, it's all around you."

The Labor Department reported Thursday living costs rose 3.1 per cent in 1967.

"Not only are they clipping along, but at an accelerated rate," the White House source said of steadily climbing costs of food, clothing, housing, transportation and medical care.

The price hikes in the final quarter of 1967 would add up to an annual rate of 3.5 per cent if they continued this year, said Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

And, Chase said, "It looks as if the trend would continue" in December except automobiles and gasoline," Chase said in reporting final 1967 figures.

The Consumer Price Index in December showed its third straight monthly rise of three-tenths of one per cent and wound up the year at 118.2. This means it cost $11.82 last month for every $10 worth of typical family goods and services in the 1957-59 period which the government uses as a base for measuring the rise in living costs.

In other terms, the 1957-59 dollar sustained a loss of 15.4 cents over the past 10 years.

Some 45 million workers—60 per cent of the nation's work force—lost 27 cents a week in purchasing power over the past year despite wage gains of $3.28 to an average of $103.25 a week.

President Johnson, in his State of the Union speech earlier this month, warned of "an accelerating spiral of price increases, a slump in home building and a continuing erosion of the American dollar," if Congress doesn't enact his proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Equally worrisome to government economists is a rapid rise in wholesale prices of industrial raw materials such as lumber, metals and textiles, which remained virtually stable the first half of 1967 but jumped 1.3 per cent in the last five months of the year.

Food prices, the most stable item in living costs in 1967, rose a comparatively slight three-tenths of one per cent. But a wholesale jump of 2.8 per cent in farm prices and 1 per cent in processed foods in December and January indicate higher grocery costs, particularly for fruits and vegetables.

The bureau reported grocery prices up five-tenths of 1 per cent in December and up three-tenths of 1 per cent over the year; housing up four-tenths of 1 per cent last month and 2.7 per cent over the year; clothing up two-tenths of 1 per cent in December and 4 per cent over the year.

Transportation prices dropped three-tenths of 1 per cent in December because of gasoline price wars and lower prices for new and used cars, but rose 3.6 per cent over the year.

Medical costs, the highest and consistently the fastest-rising price category, went up five-tenths of 1 per cent in December and were 6.4 per cent above December 1966. Medical care services, chiefly doctors' and dentists' fees, rose 7.9 per cent in 1967.

The Athletic Program

By FRITZ JACOBS,
Superintendent

The Athletic Program of the Circleville City School system is quite comprehensive.

It consists of seven sports at the High School: football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, golf, cross country.

Four at the Junior High: football, basketball, wrestling, track.

A Saturday morning elementary basketball program is also conducted.

The Athletic Program is essentially self supporting from gate receipts except that the coaches salaries are paid from the general fund.

A large number of boys are participants each year in one sport or another. Approximately 225 participants compete during a normal year.

The Athletic Program is under strict regulation of the Ohio High School Athletic Assn. An athletic council at the local level composed of the superintendent, high school principal, faculty manager, a member of the Board of Education, and the head football and head basketball coach exists as the policy making body. All other head coaches attend meetings of the athletic board.

Eligibility to participate in athletics must be earned. Some of the qualifications are as follows:

I. Age Limitations — A. Age 19 attained on or after Sept. 1 — pupil is eligible to compete through the fall sports program. B. Age 19 is attained on or after Nov. 1 — pupil is eligible to compete through the winter sports program. C. Age 19 is attained on or after March 1 — Pupil is eligible to compete through the spring sports season.

II. Academic Requirement — A. A pupil to be eligible for any sport must have passed three academic subjects the preceding semester. (Make-up work of any kind — such as tutoring or summer school — is not permitted in order to be eligible.)

III. Weekly Scholastic Requirements — A. Pupil must have maintained from the beginning of the semester up to the end of the week preceding that in which the contest occurs passing average grades in subjects which count one and one-half units per semester toward graduation. No special recitation or tests or other consideration are to be given for the purpose of making a pupil eligible. B. Teachers check the above requirement each week in the High School office.

IV. Physical Examination — A. "It is required that all participants have a physical examination and that it be on file in the High School Principal's office prior to any practice sessions."

The financing of the Athletic Program results primarily from gate receipts. The annual budget approximates $12,000-$14,000.

The athletic fund now operates without deficit spending. A small contingency is carried for emergencies. Expenditures are approved in advance by an established purchase order system. Coaches submit requisitions which are approved by the high school principal before being submitted to the treasurer for ordering purposes.

The largest sum approximately 50 per cent is expended annually for equipment items. The athletic teams of Circleville City Schools are always adequately and safely equipped. The Booster Club annually supplement equipment purchases as well as providing the pre game meal in football.

Football and basketball gate receipts provide most of the income. A normal year should provide approximately $8,500 in football and $3,100 in basketball. Reserved seat sales add another $2,000. Miscellaneous receipts provide an additional $1,000.

The philosophy of the athletic program is to provide a well balanced program, to serve as many different students as possible. Additionally the aim seeks as its chief purposes friendly rivalry, new friendships, improved playing skills, better community relations, and good sportsmanship.

Bishop Sets Up Houses For Priests

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — A Montana bishop of the Episcopal Church is setting up houses for priests who he said have broken down "under the stresses of contemporary parochial life."

The Rt. Rev. Chandler W. Sterling, 57, says 2,200 Episcopal clergymen are in this category.

The first "Nicomachus House" will open March 1 at Pelham, a New York City suburb, with the blessing of the House of Bishops but without church money. The name comes from a Biblical man who "comes quietly to the door by night with a heavy heart."

"I'm going to be swamped as soon as I start," the bishop said. He has resigned as the head of the church in Montana effective March 1.

The project is called PARADON, for Pastors Anonymous, Recovery-Directed Order for Newness.

A priest would be relieved of his pastoral duties, moved to a Nicomachus House without his family, and given temporary secular work "so he can pay his way while he battles his bag."

Officials Admit Living Cost Crisis

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs, climbing at a 10-year record pace and more than wiping out wage gains of many Americans, are causing White House concern in this election year.

For all Americans, a White House source said Thursday, the rising prices mean "you've got trouble and it's not on the horizon, it's all around you."

The Labor Department reported Thursday living costs rose 3.1 per cent in 1967.

"Not only are they clipping along, but at an accelerated rate," the White House source said of steadily climbing costs of food, clothing, housing, transportation and medical care.

The price hikes in the final quarter of 1967 would add up to an annual rate of 3.5 per cent if they continued this year, said Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

And, Chase said, "It looks as if the trend would continue." "Almost everything went up in December except automobiles and gasoline," Chase said in reporting final 1967 figures.

The Consumer Price Index in December showed its third straight monthly rise of three-tenths of one per cent and wound up the year at 118.2. This means it cost $11.82 last month for every $10 worth of typical family goods and services in the 1957-59 period which the government uses as a base for measuring the rise in living costs.

In other terms, the 1957-59 dollar sustained a loss of 15.4 cents over the past 10 years. Some 45 million workers—60 per cent of the nation's work force—lost 27 cents a week in purchasing power over the past year despite wage gains of $3.28 to an average of $103.25 a week.

President Johnson, in his State of the Union speech earlier this month, warned of "an accelerating spiral of price increases, a slump in home building and a continuing erosion of the American dollar," if Congress doesn't enact his proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Equally worrisome to government economists is a rapid rise in wholesale prices of industrial raw materials such as lumber, metals and textiles, which remained virtually stable the first half of 1967 but jumped 1.3 per cent in the last five months of the year.

The bureau reported grocery prices up five-tenths of 1 per cent in December and up three-tenths of 1 per cent over the year; housing up four-tenths of 1 per cent last month and 2.7 per cent over the year; clothing up two-tenths of 1 per cent in December and 4 per cent over the year.

Transportation prices dropped three-tenths of 1 per cent in December because of gasoline price wars and lower prices for new and used cars, but rose 3.6 per cent over the year.

Medical costs, the highest and consistently the fastest-rising price category, went up five-tenths of 1 per cent in December and were 6.4 per cent above December 1966. Medical care services, chiefly doctors' and dentists' fees, rose 7.9 per cent in 1967.

Food prices, the most stable item in living costs in 1967, rose a comparatively slight three-tenths of one per cent. But a wholesale jump of 2.8 per cent in farm prices and 1 per cent in processed foods in December and January indicate higher grocery costs, particularly for fruits and vegetables.

McDonald Ohio Minority Chief

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Youthful Newark attorney John C. McDonald is the new leader of the Democratic minority of the Ohio House, but his election Thursday touched off party bickering.

The 31-year-old second-term was picked at a party caucus to succeed Rep. Frank R. Pikorney of Cleveland, who will resign Feb. 2 to accept interim appointment as Cuyahoga County commissioner.

You'll need a large pot, three quarts of boiling water and a tablespoon of salt for cooking half a pound of macaroni.
